Ben

lvl. 83
holding: Eviolite

-Was heavily socialized with humans, hence the name
-Purposefully stays a lower evo to keep human qualities, also to retain Pickup ability
-Extremely loyal to his trainer. Teacher's pet.
-A stickler for rules and regimen.
-Worked tirelessly for years to improve his stats. Is now top-percentile for his species.

-Assigned to train Breakfast. It's not going well.
-Downs potions and elixers like an alcoholic. Makes up for shortcomings.

A childhood scar continues to motivate his training.

Often wears compression tops or training jackets

Wrist wraps

Ankle weights to train speed

BREAKFAST

lvl. 55
holding: PP up (lol)

-Previously a shiny noodle. Was a successful beauty show star. Has barely seen battle.

-designer hoodies bought with old trainer's credit card

-Sold to spoiled trainer who spammed him with rare candies to evolve him. This quick evo somehow preserved his pink hue, but also made him VERY disobedient.
-Quickly sold off. Bought by current trainer, who saw his potential.

-Lazy, spoiled, disobedient, publicly indecent, but Ben usually ends up taking the blame for his shenanigans.

-Everyone loves him, except Ben, who sees his true rotten self.
-Born with insane stats. Super strong. Doesn't know his potential. Ben does, which pisses him off even more

-Bratty bottom. Would NEVER admit how much he loves getting used, even if it's by.....him.
-Cages to "stay focused on what's important"
-Relectant fleshlight (its the fastest way to get the big slacker back on track)

-A childhood scar continues to motivate his training.

-Cages, but often appears null. (we'll just say his skillful slight-of-hand means you only see what he wants you to see)
