Not sure how but after all this time, I would be the fortunate one to trigger this old form of yours. Based on my intel, Ichigo isn't in control right now...

I can sense the its power getting stronger by the seconds!

How the tables have turned! Look who wants to play offensively this time.

Alright then, I'll play your game! You want this this body, don't you? three strikes! Make me submit! Let's see if you are actually as strong as the rumour said!

PRESSURE

But after that, I'M putting you down! can't let this hollow form of yours loose anyway.

Sorry Ichigo, I can't Miss out on this oppotunity. If you're listening, know that it is totally personal!
