Oh?
What do we have here?

Now this looks interesting!

I should bring this back to the college.

Of course not! I help find lost and forgotten relics for the college I attend.

I don't intend to steal them from other people!

Since it's yours I won't touch it. Again I'm sorry and I'll be on my way.

Wait!

I-I mean you obviously meant no harm, and you're not here to steal my master's artifact.

I-I haven't really had any company in so long. Y-you can stay a while if you want...

If you don't mind my asking, how long have you been here?

Oh, uh...

J-just a few decades...

Decades?!

Oh you poor thing! Of course I'll keep you company!

My name is Reggie by the way. What is your name?

...Cyrus.

Cyrus! It's a pleasure to meet you!

I've read alot about elementals but I've never seen one myself!

I've heard that fire elementals don't burn but are just really warm.

Is that true?

Y-yeah, that's true!

Our flames can be adjusted so we don't burn anything.

Wow! That's so cool!

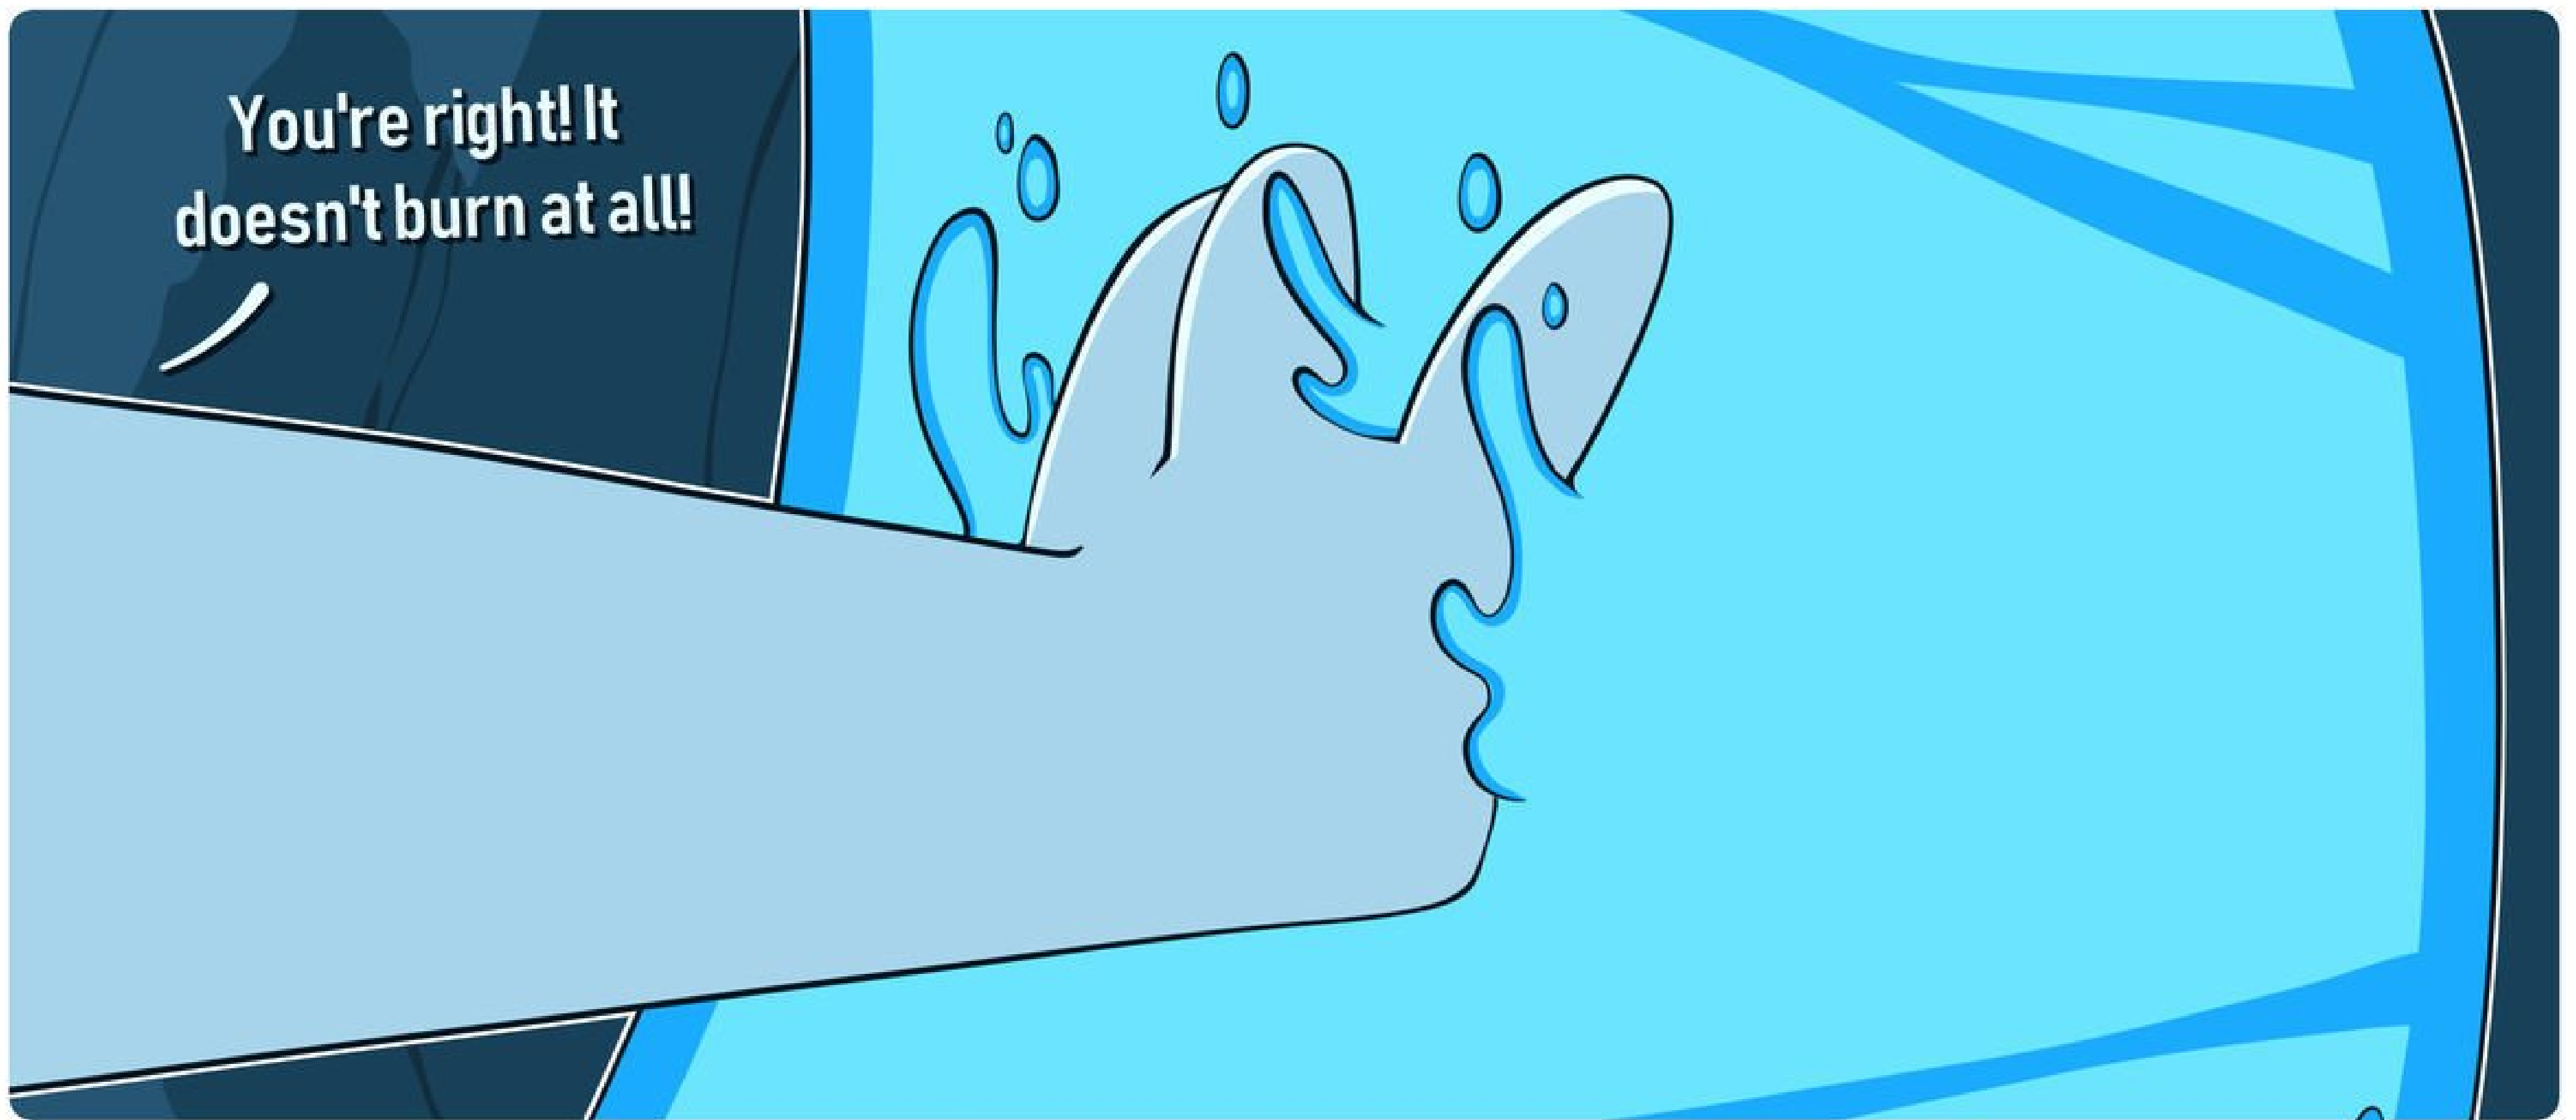

Would you mind if I felt it?

O-oh, um...

Yeah, I guess. Go ahead!

You're right! It doesn't burn at all!

You're nice and warm!
I told ya!

Mmmm. You feel very pleasant
O-oh....
t-thank you...

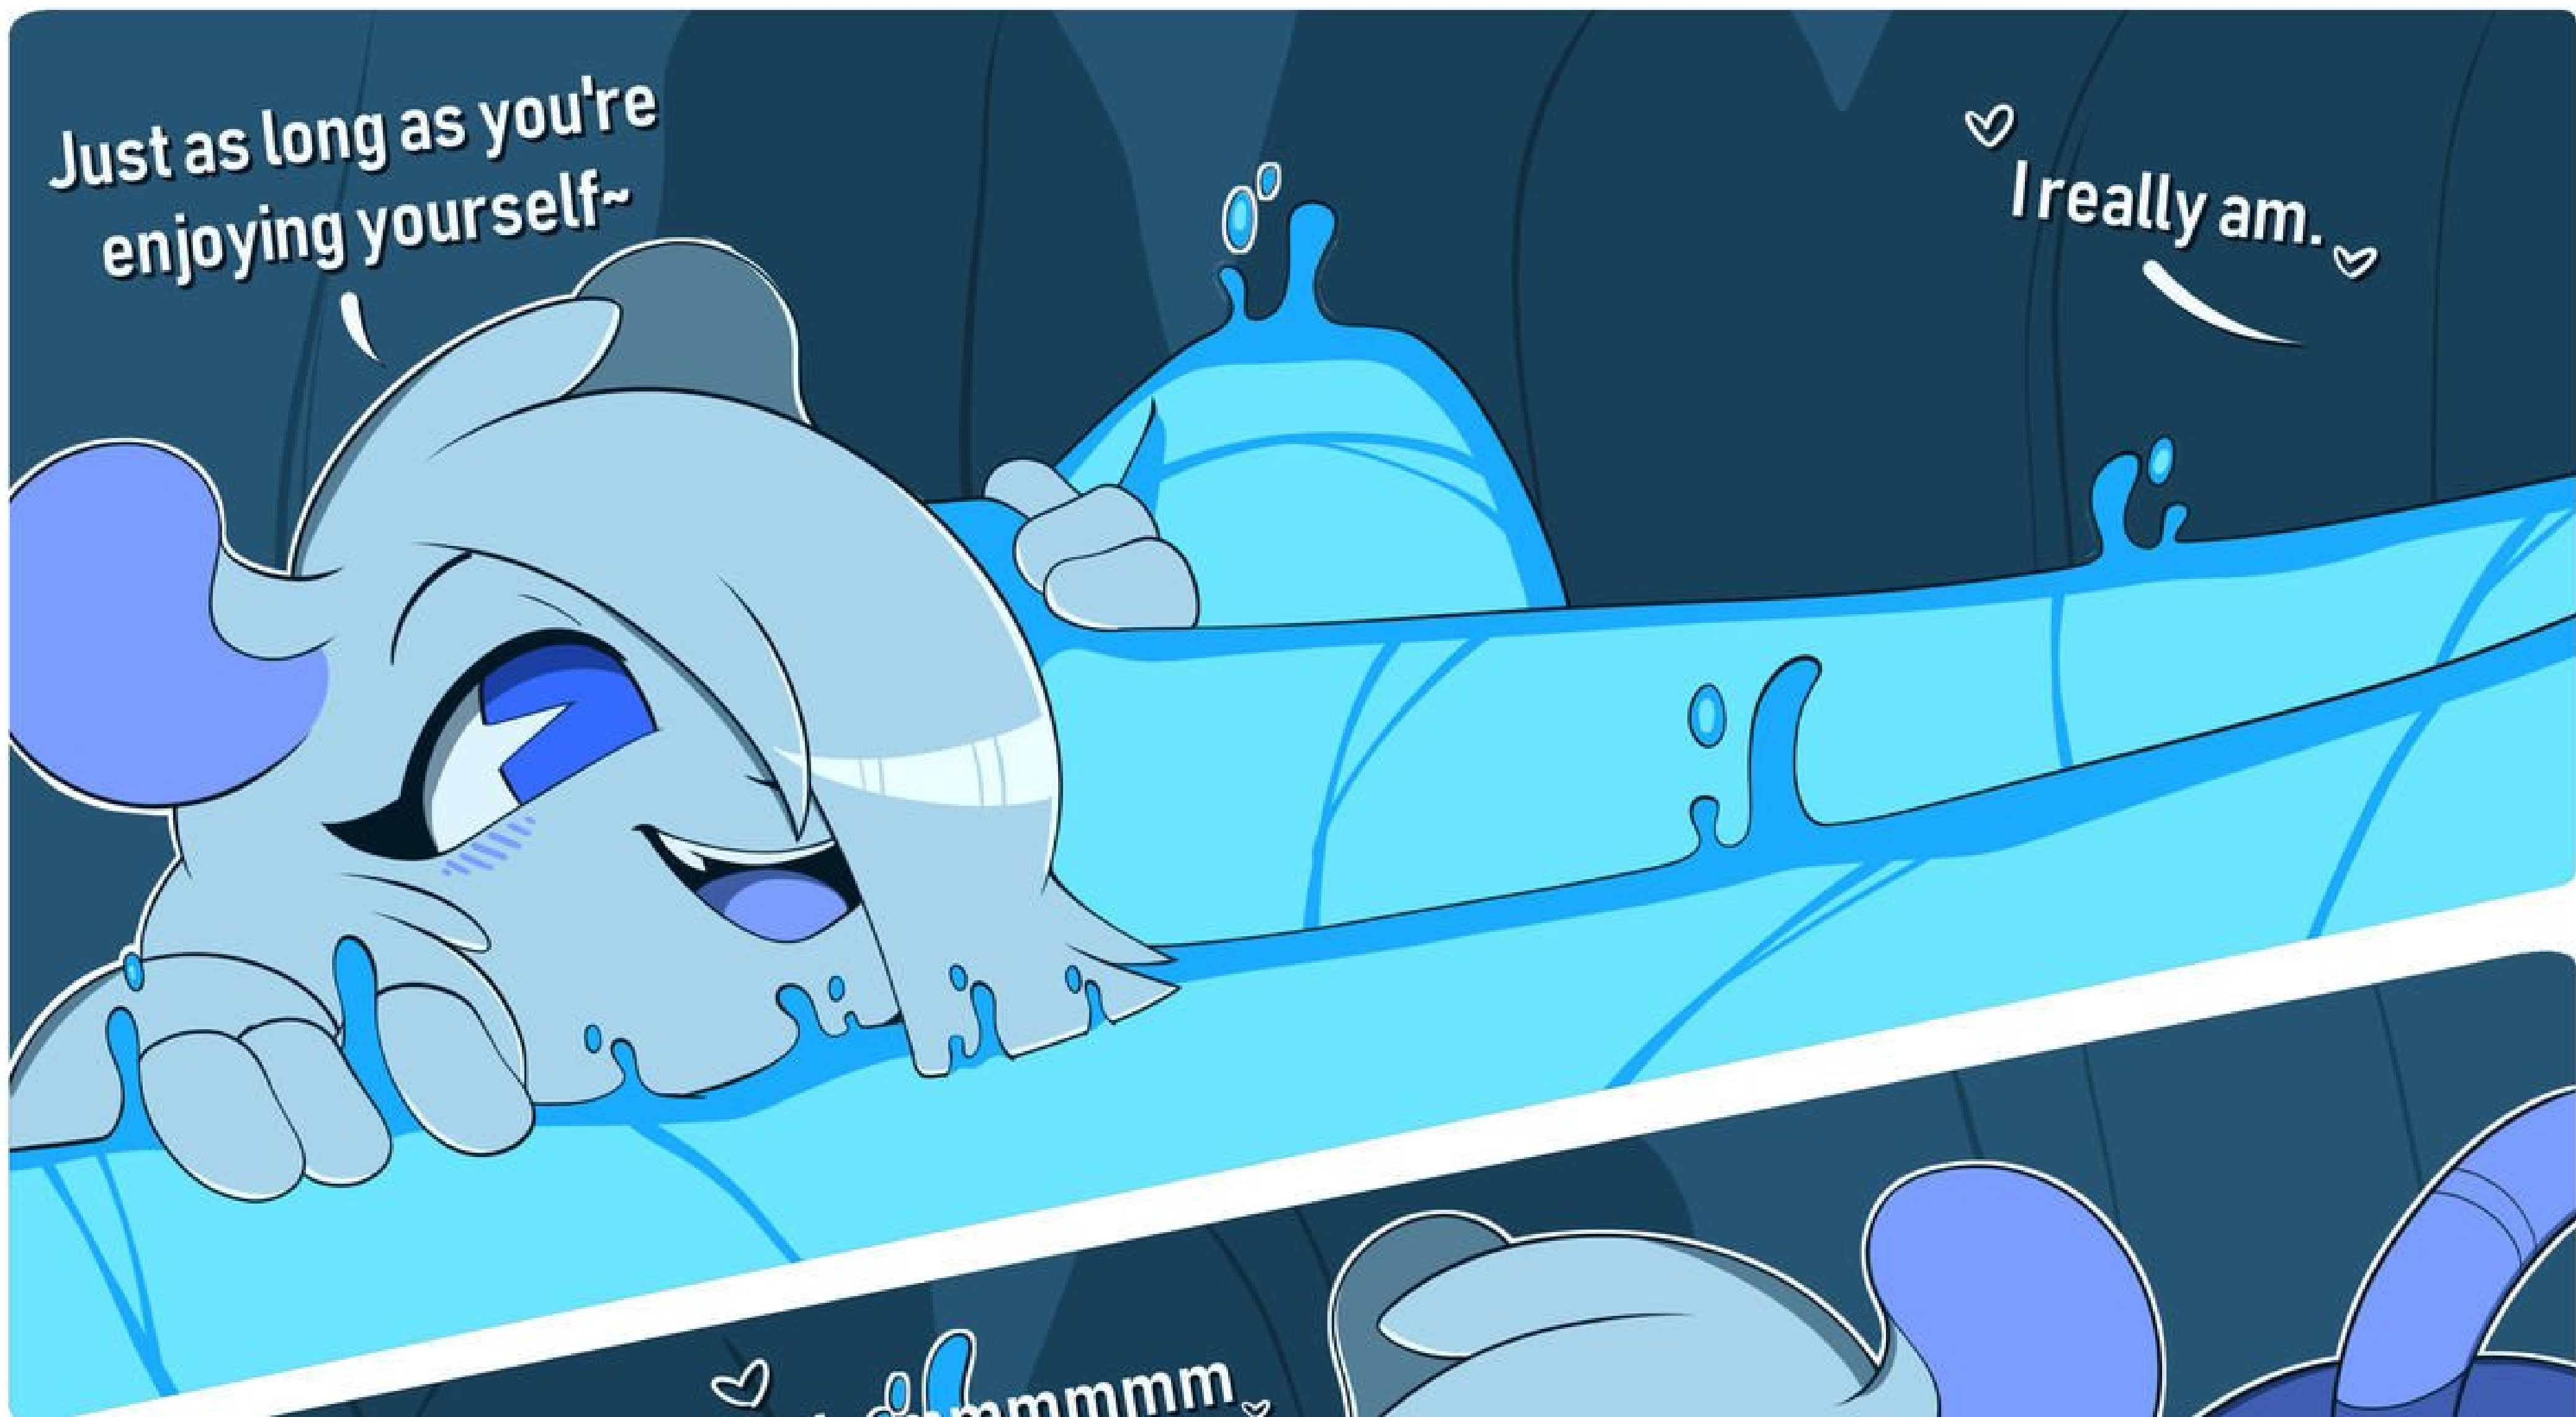

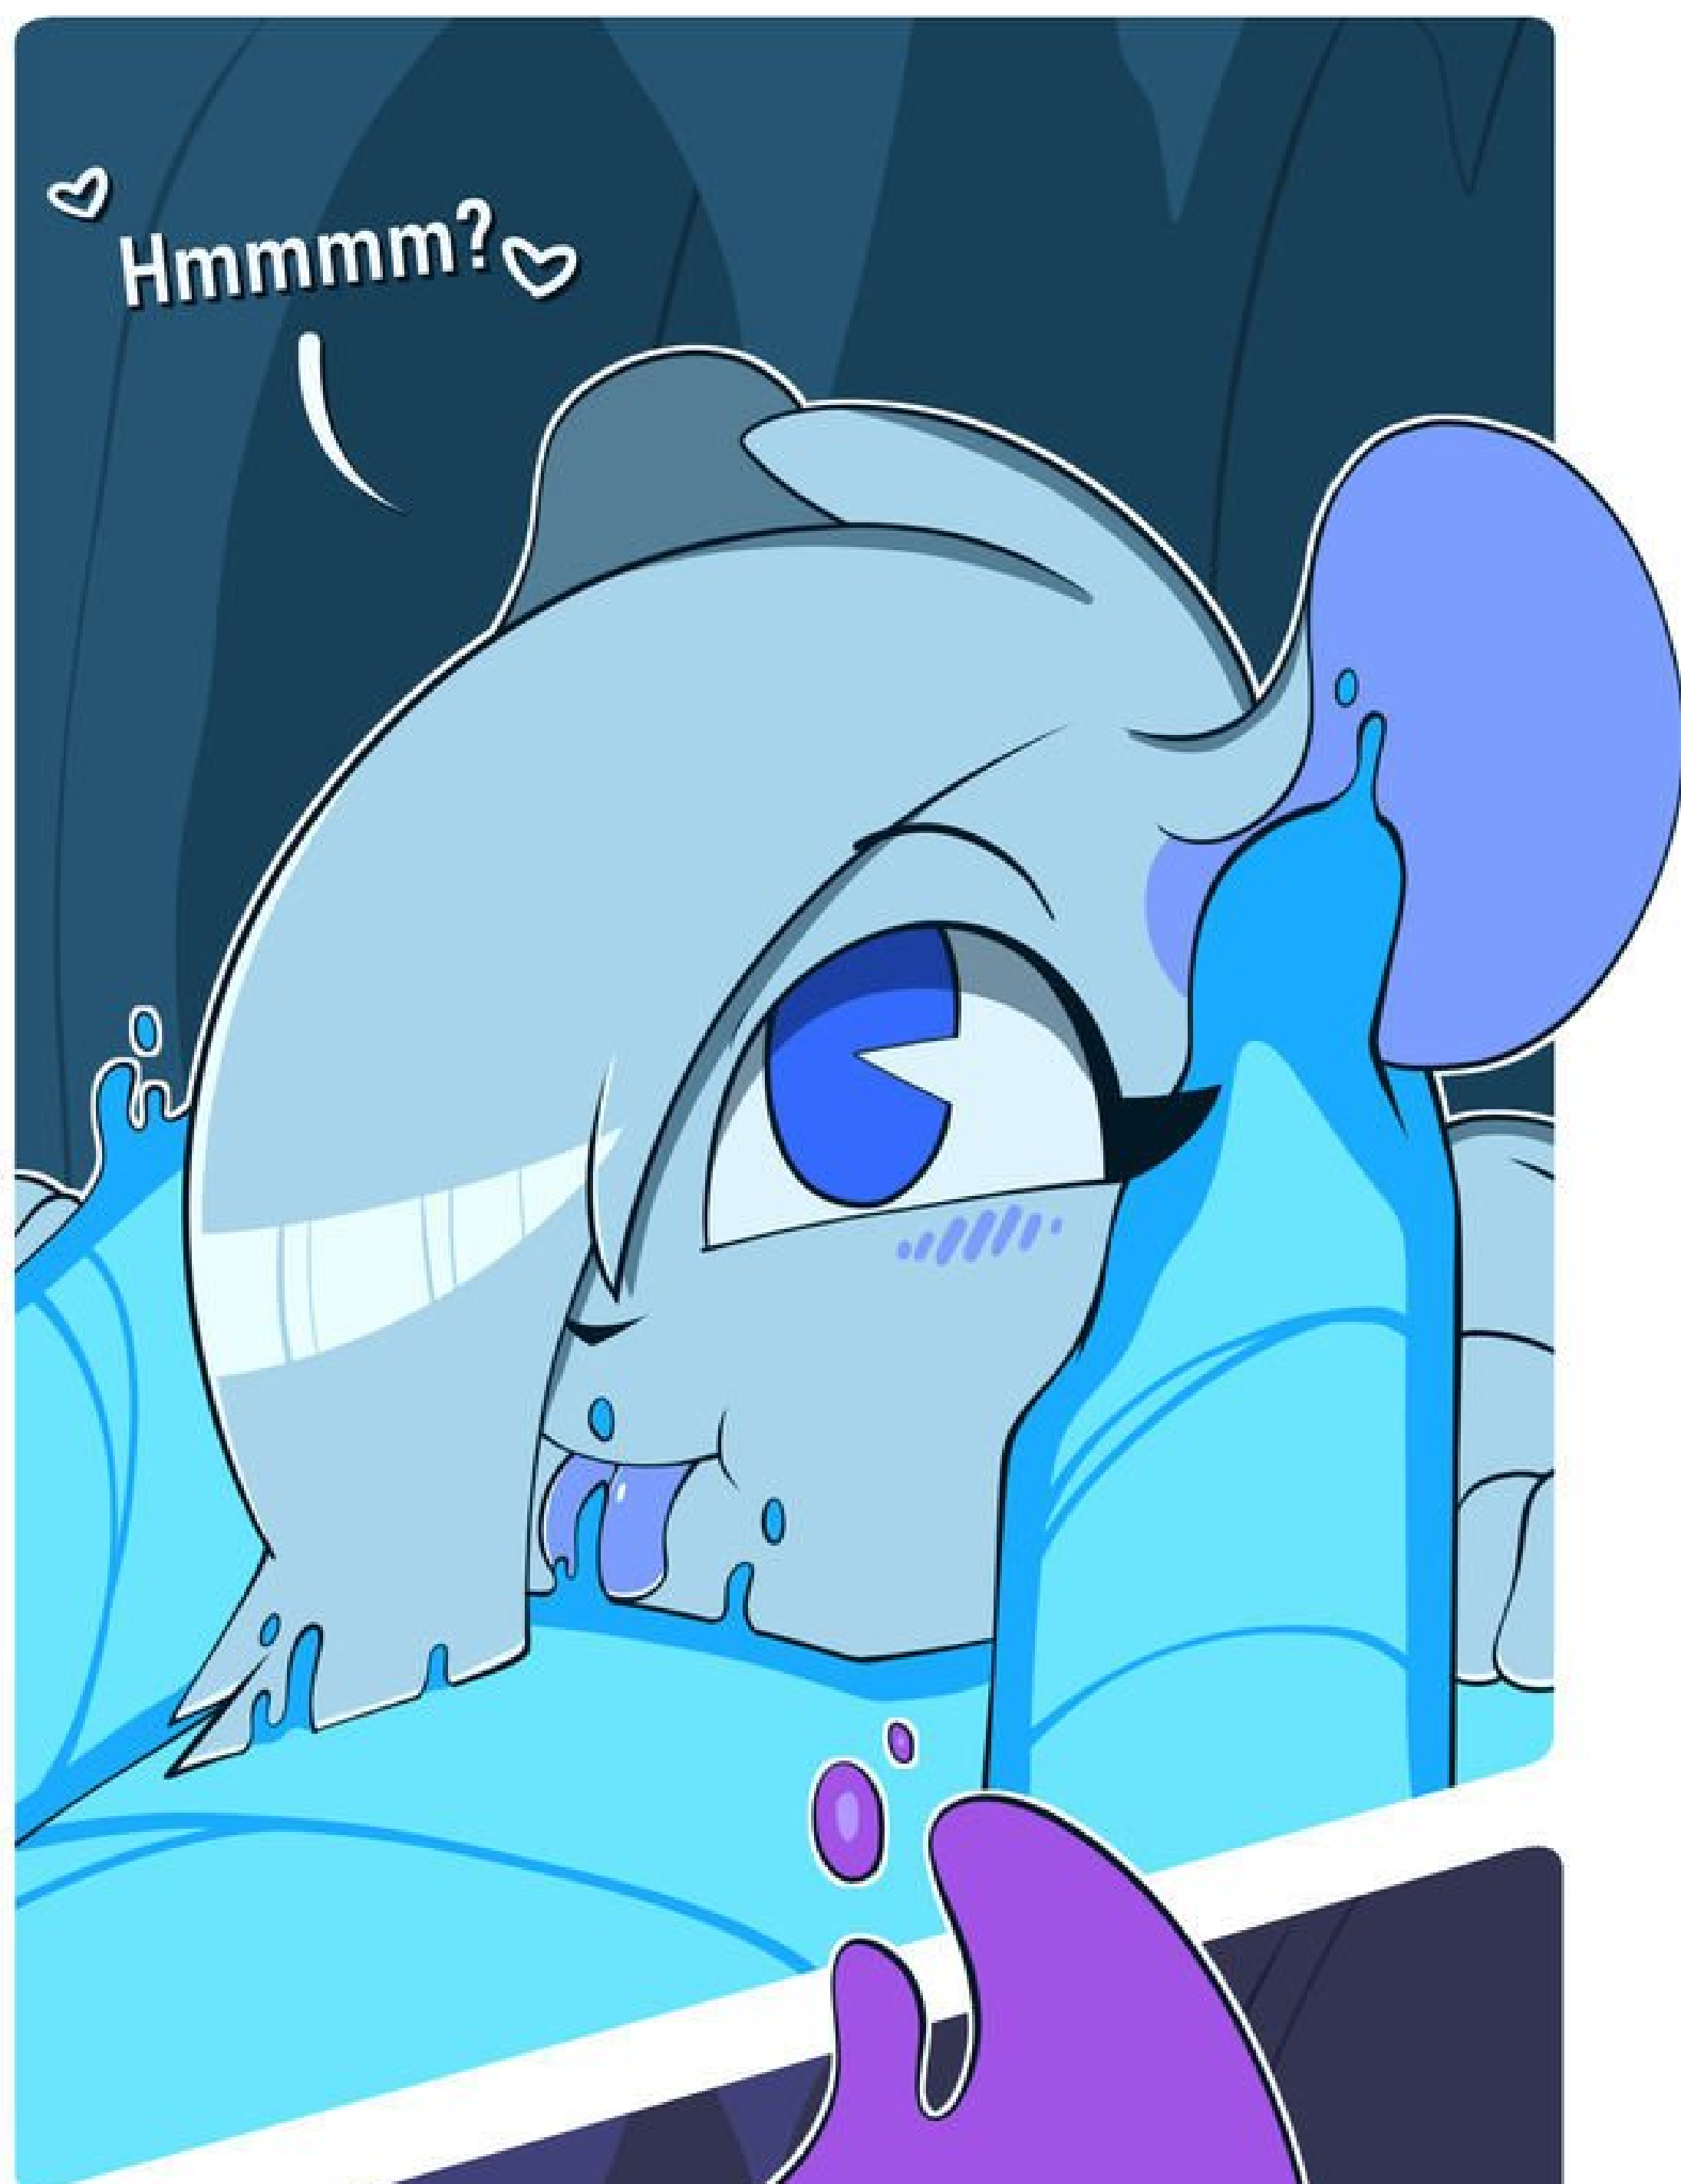

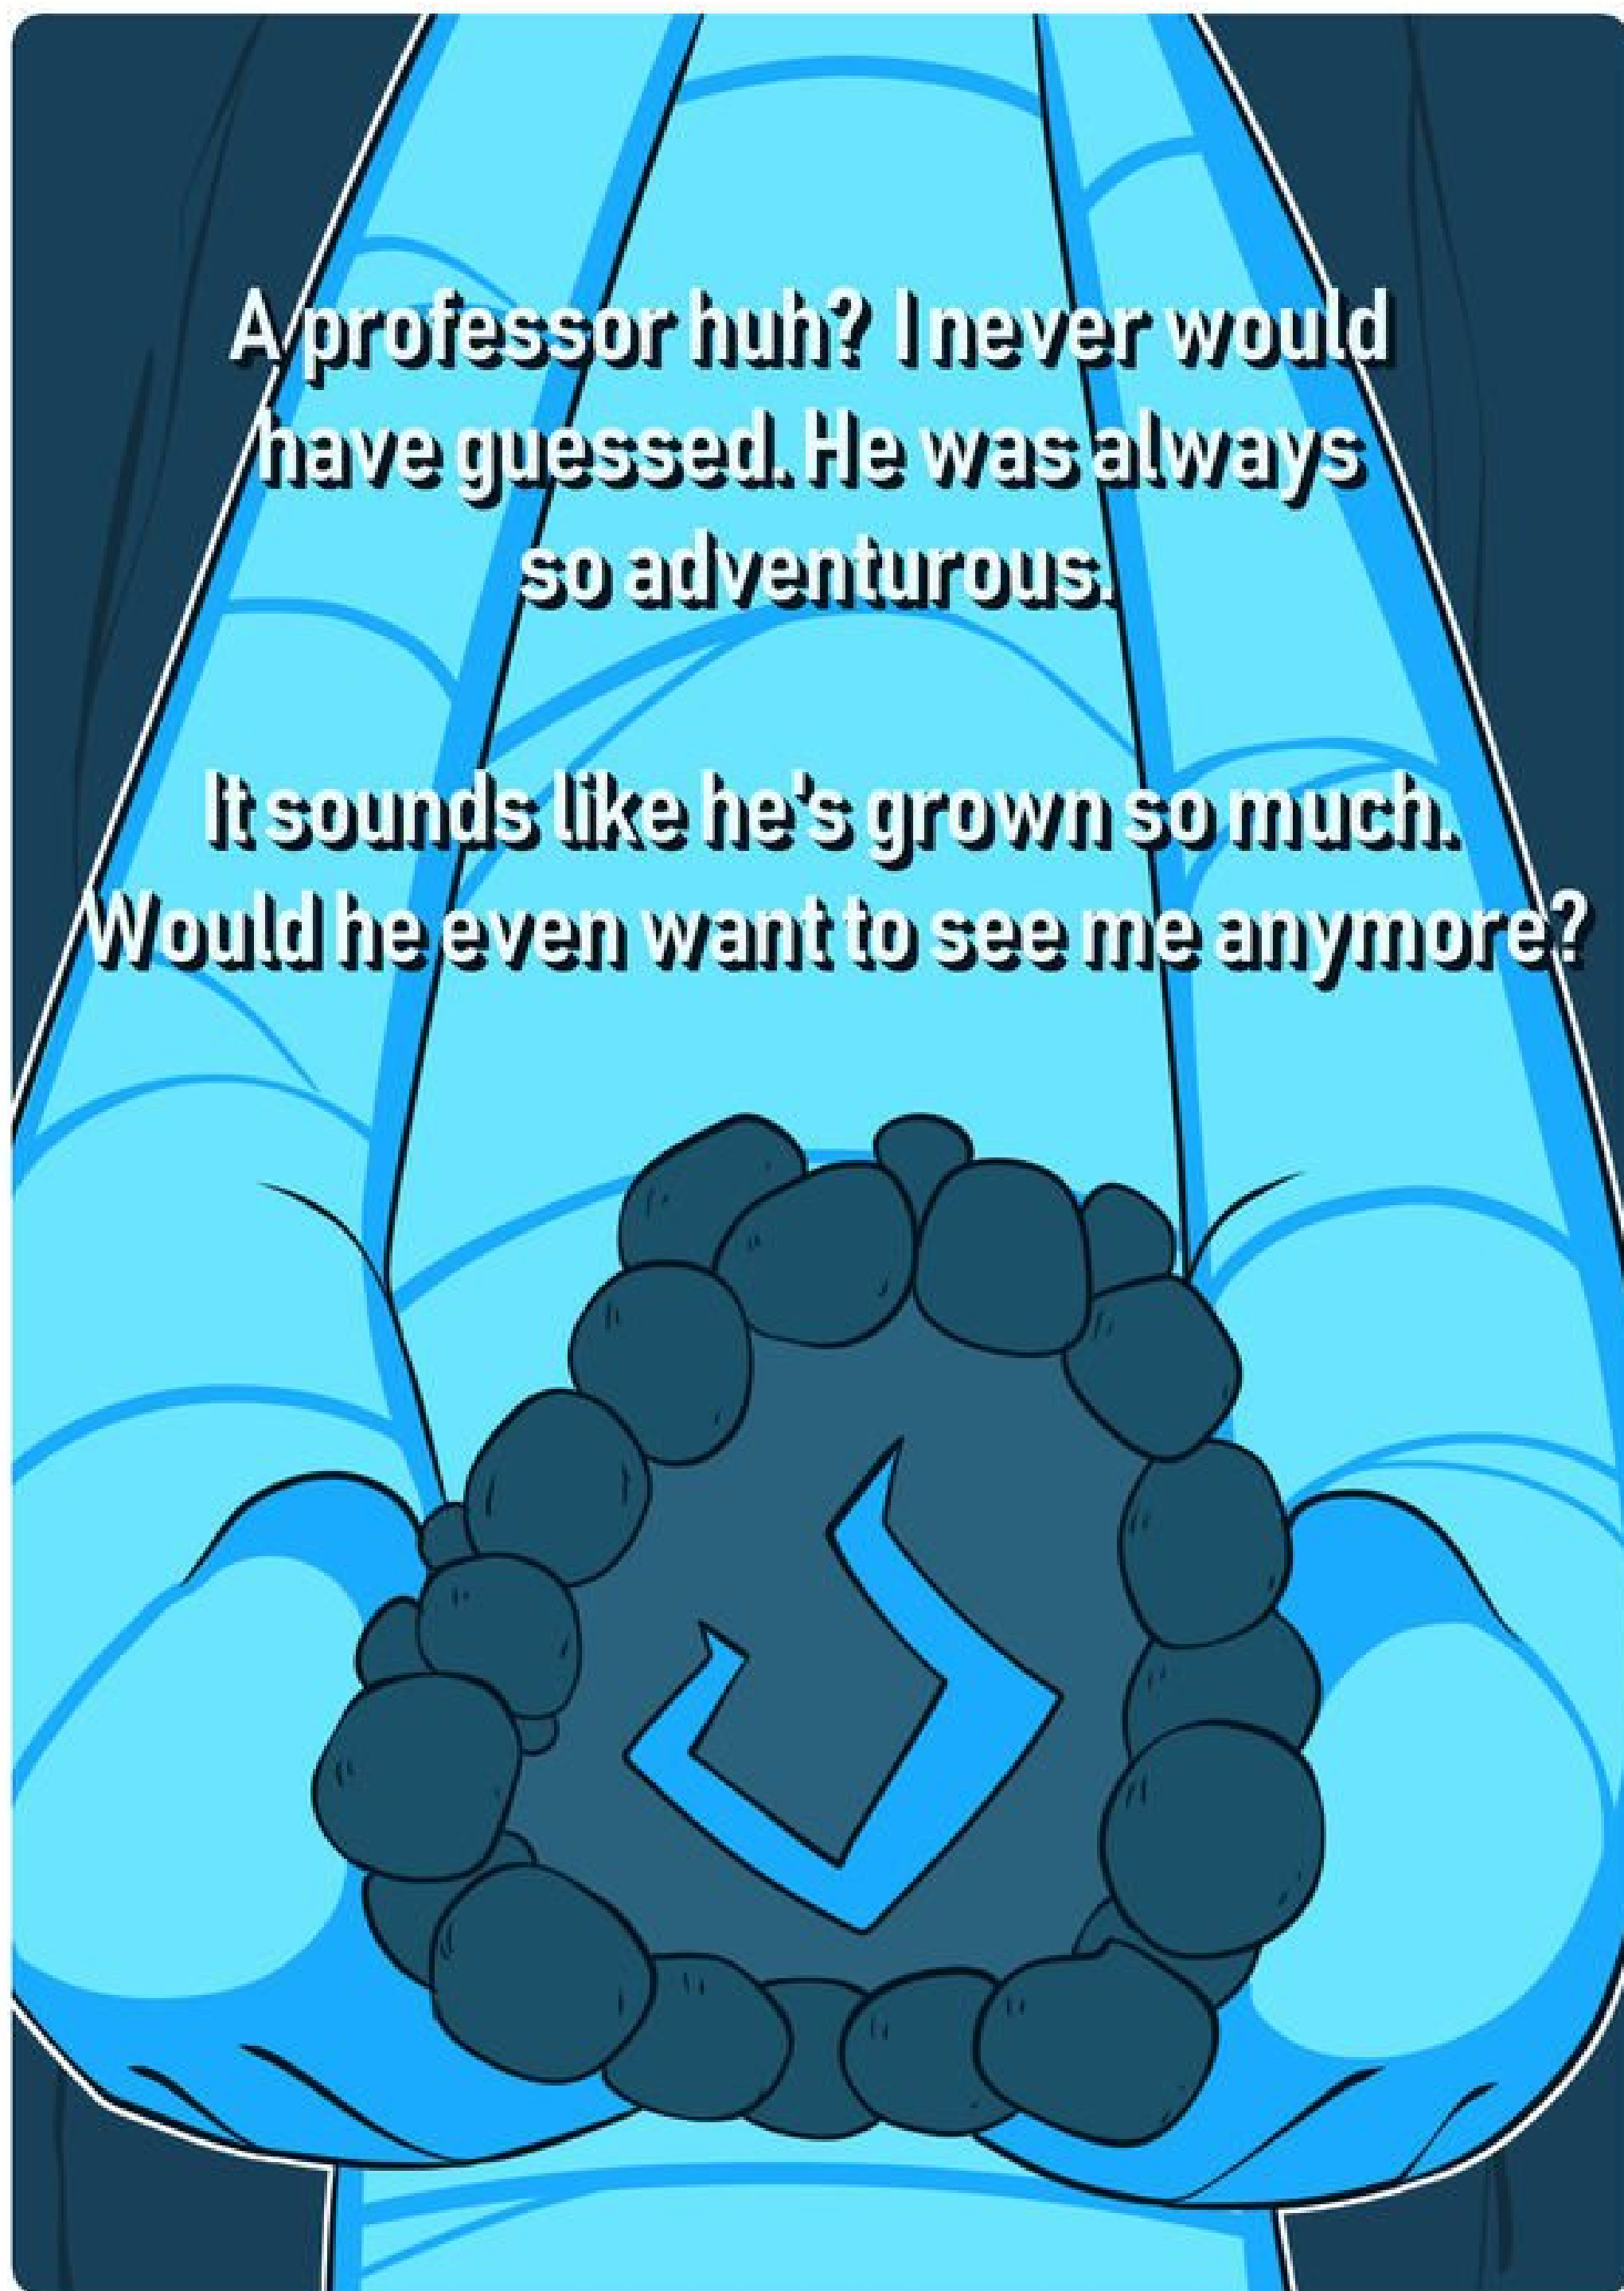

A professor huh? I never would have guessed. He was always so adventurous.

It sounds like he's grown so much. Would he even want to see me anymore?

Absolutely! He's talked about his lost Elemental so much! He really misses you!

Really?

Yes! I can't wait to see his expression when he sees you again! He's going to flip!

O-oh, he shouldn't do that at his age.

It's just an expression Cy. He'll be really happy.

Oh good.

Alone

Hey professor! I was wondering if you could answer a question I have?

Oh! Hi Reggie! My master is out on business until later tonight.

What did you need?

Eh, it can wait. How has the college life been treating you?

Still getting used to it. You know, new places and new faces.

I'm glad I'm with my master again, but I don't know what to do when I'm by myself here.

Well, you know you can stop by my room if you're feeling lonely.

You're welcome any time.

Absolutely~

O-oh... Uh...

W-would, maybe, now count as any time?
