At a fashionable nightclub in Golchester, Alex Wheeler and Jasmine Vear bump'n grind the night away. they are not un-noticed...

Their earlier feud forgotten, the two become lost in the arms of a pair of strangers. Alex feels her heart begin to pound as a hand strokes the soft skin of her thigh. As her loins start to ache with lust, Alex knows she will not sleep alone tonight...

A short while later Alex finds herself in the flat of her new lover. For the second time that day she feels a sexual heat grow inside her and the sensation of her clothes being torn asunder from her body. But this is not caused by her transformation into Stellar but the hands of her lover, hungry for her naked body. She indulges him no less, and thier lovemaking is intense and passionate.

The affair lasts until Alex feels her lids beome heavy at dawn. But there is no time for sleep now as she has forgotten a more pressing engagement at the hospital!

Oh SHIT!
I'm gonna be late!

Hmn? leaving without giving me breakfast?

I'm late for work. You'll live.

Pig!

Bollocks! There goes the bus, and I don't have enough for a taxi!

That settles it! There's only one way I can get there in time now!

Ahh, that park there looks nice and empty - Good!

It's early, so I don't think anyone will see me while I concentrate...

..concentrate..

Gotta make myself...change! Ooo...here it comes...

UUHHHH!

AHH!

OHH!

YES!

The transition from human to super-human complete, Stellar takes to the skies. A journey that would have taken an hour by bus is made in mere minutes.

Once inside, and finding that the staff locker room is empty, Stellar makes an uncomfortable reversion to her human form...

As ever, Stellar is high on the sheer impossible thrill of her powers. It is with a heavy heart that she touches down at the workplace of her alter ego.

There we go. Only a little late. Lucky I've got a uniform kept here just in case.

Ah-HA! You're late you naughty cow! And where did you get to last night, eh young lady? Just a quick... coffee was it?

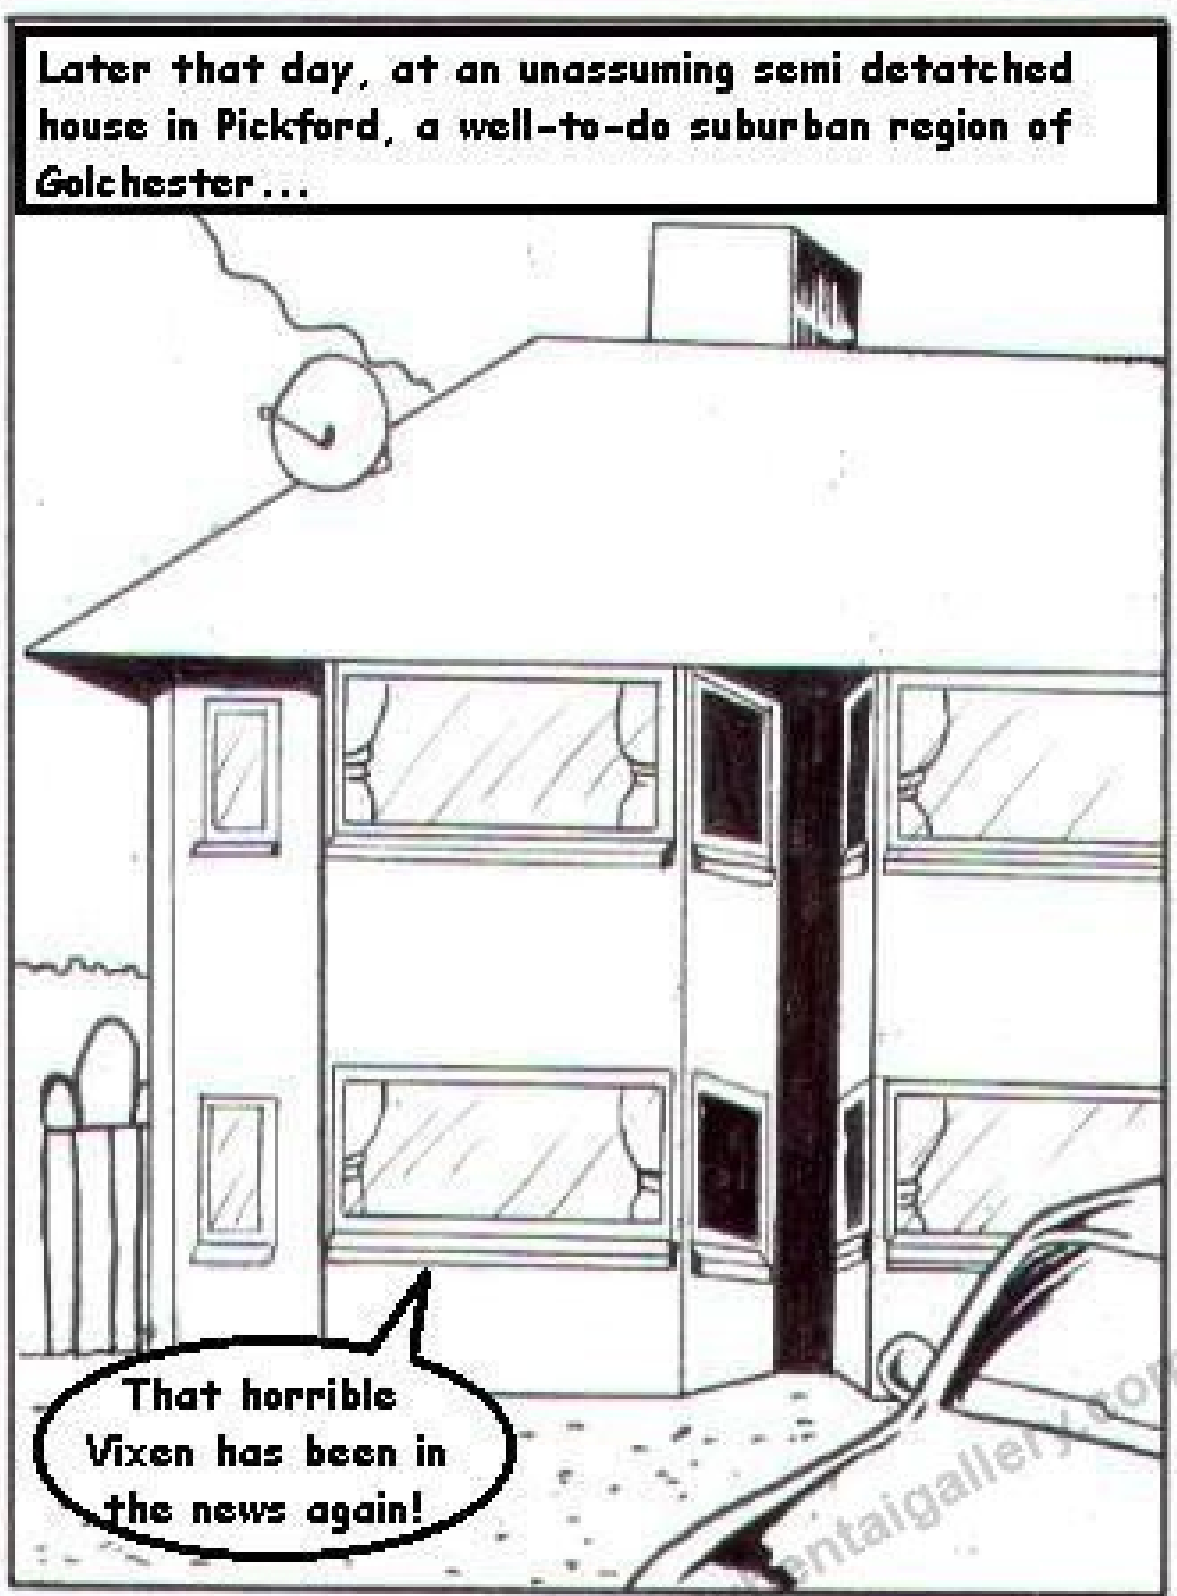

Jasmine! You took me by surprise! How did you get on with...who was it?

Couldn't tell you. His feet stank so I left him!

Poor old Jas. She's giving it all this 'party girl' attitude, but I can tell she's really messed up about her Mum calling her.

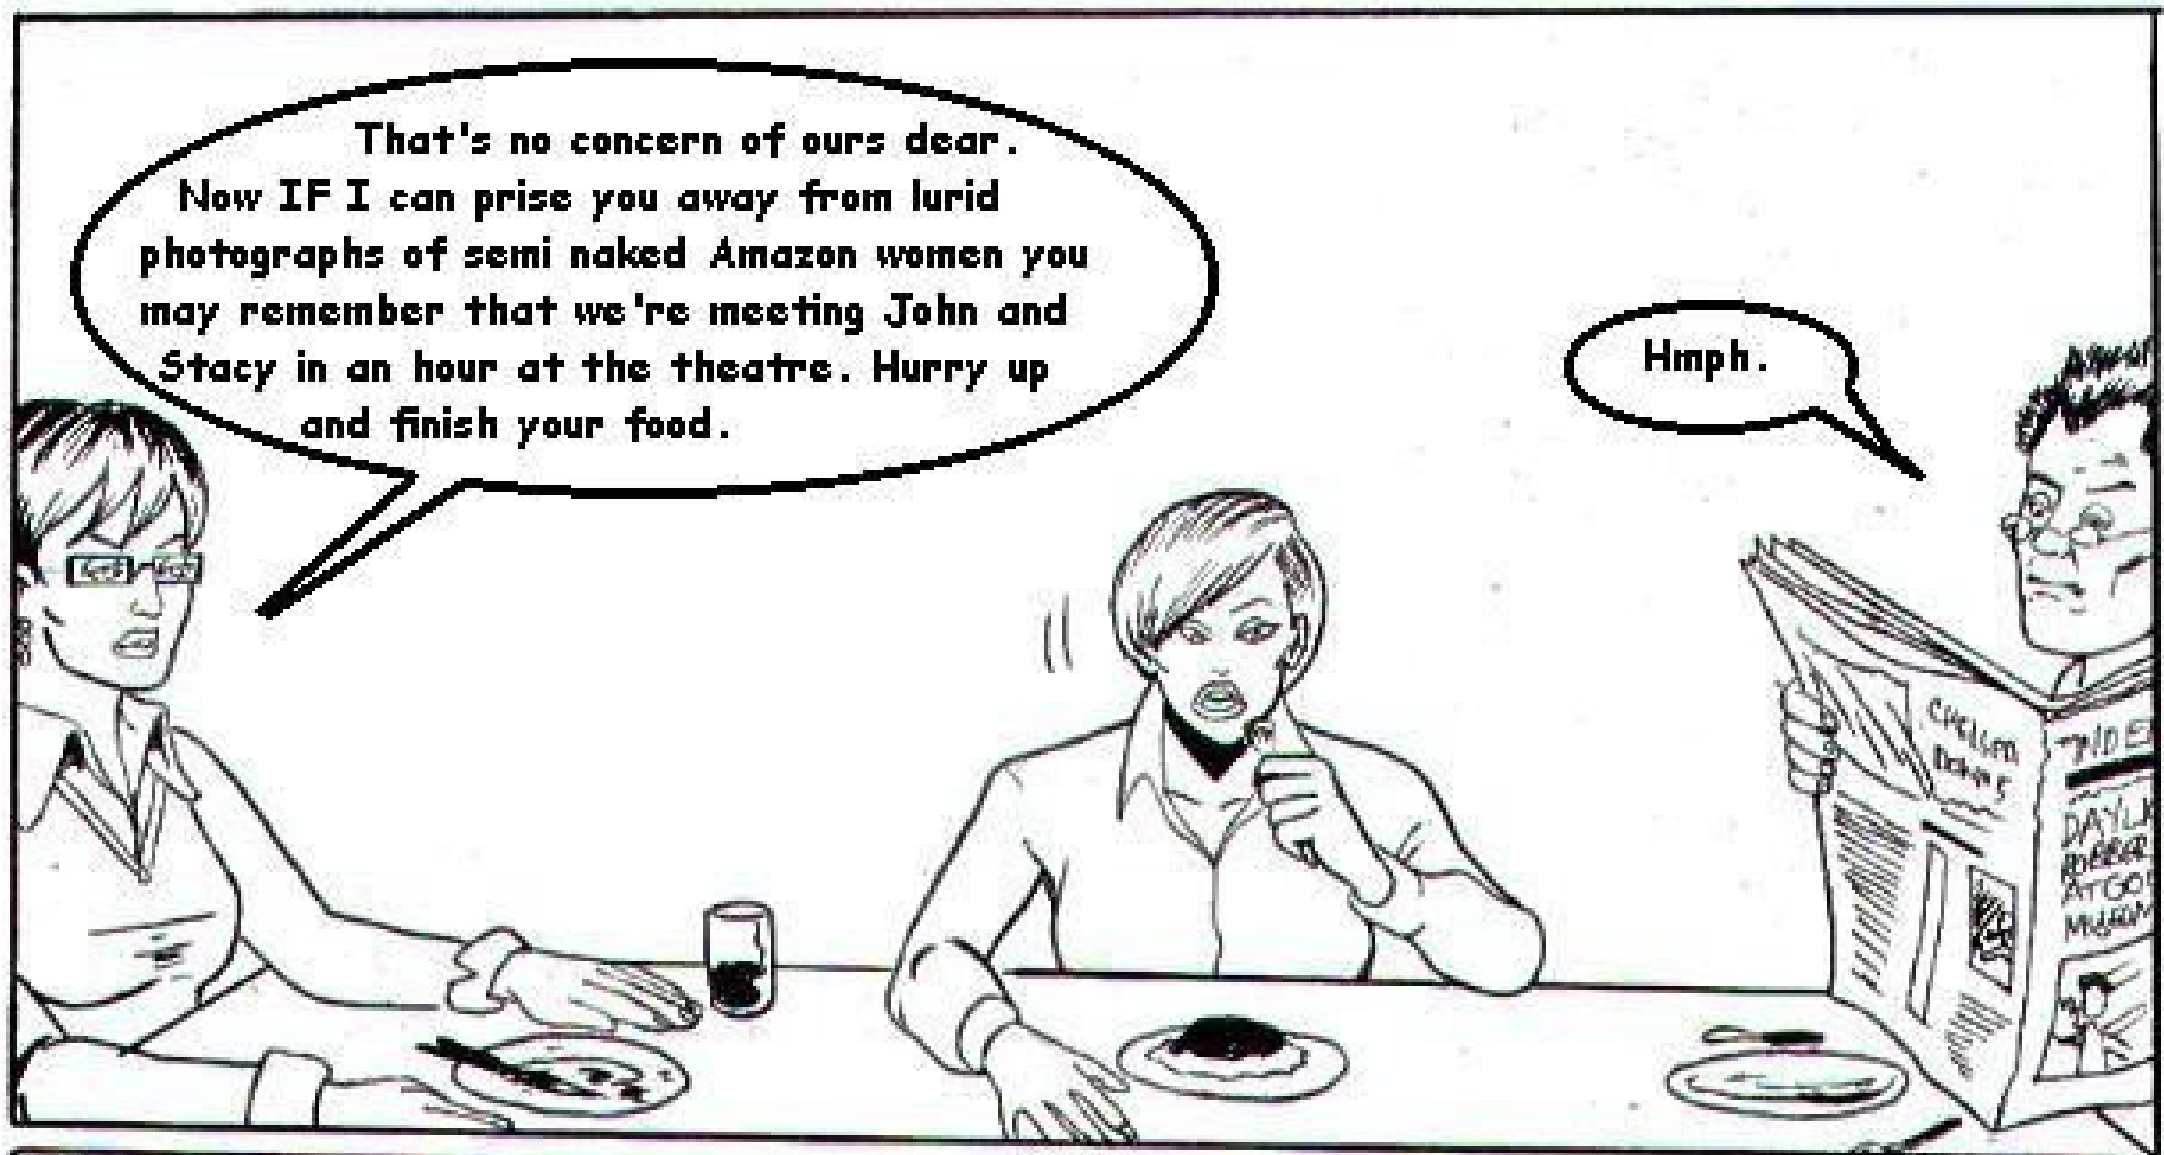

Ah well. Time for another exciting day.

Later that day, at an unassuming semi detached house in Pickford, a well-to-do suburban region of Golchester...

That horrible Vixen has been in the news again!

MyMentalGallery.com

That's no concern of ours dear.
Now IF I can prise you away from lurid photographs of semi naked Amazon women you may remember that we're meeting John and Stacy in an hour at the theatre. Hurry up and finish your food.

Hmph.

Will do Dad. Have a great night.

Don't forget to lock up tonight sweetie, and don't open the door to any strangers, and-

For heaven's sake Brian stop worrying.
Stephanie's eighteen now and she is perfectly capable of taking care of herself! Now let's go, our taxi's waiting!

Cretins. They would have divorced years ago if they had an ounce of sense between them, they obviously hate each other. But Mum and Dad still have their uses, and what better hiding place for the Vixen than safe, dull Pickford?

Mmmmm,
sun's setting.
The mask of Stephanie Halifax is beginning to slip...

A conscientious student, Stephanie Halifax spends the early evening studying. But her studies are about to be interrupted...

The full moon rises, and Stephanie rubs her temple feeling a sudden pressure build inside her body.

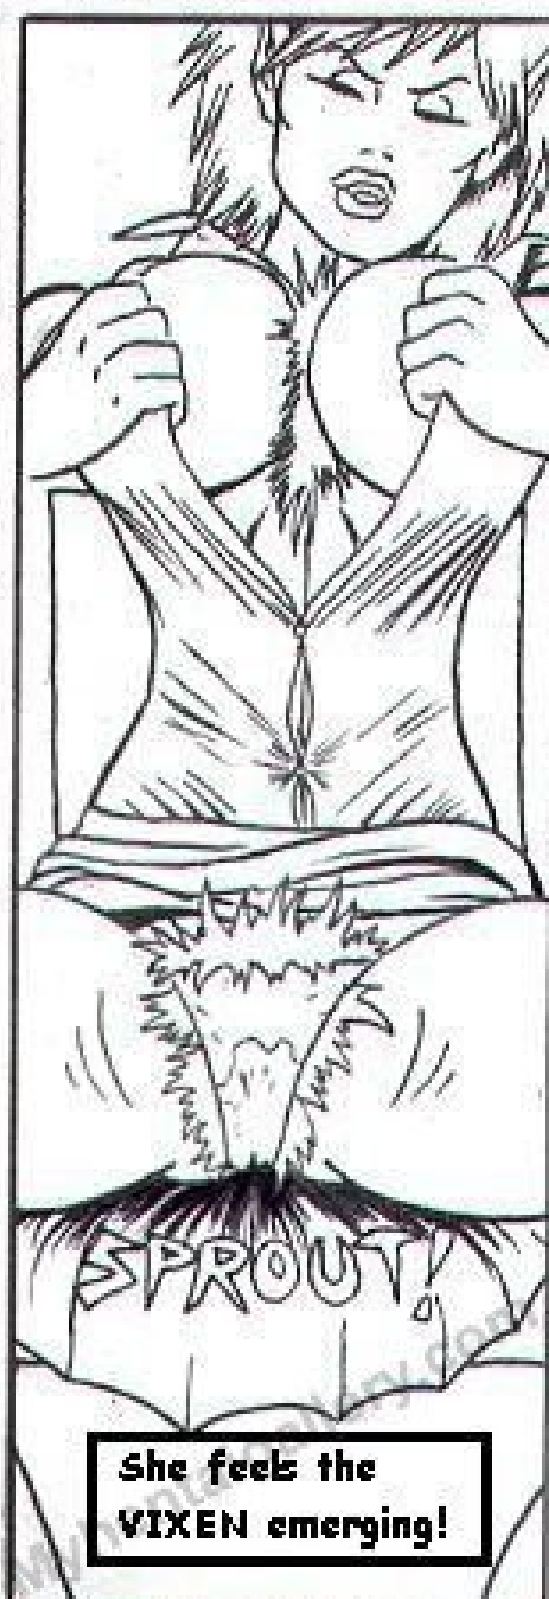

With a slight cry, Stephanie feels that pressure grow and release itself!

As ever, the change excites her sexually, and she moans with pleasure as she feels it begin! Her skin starts to tingle...

She feels herself growing...

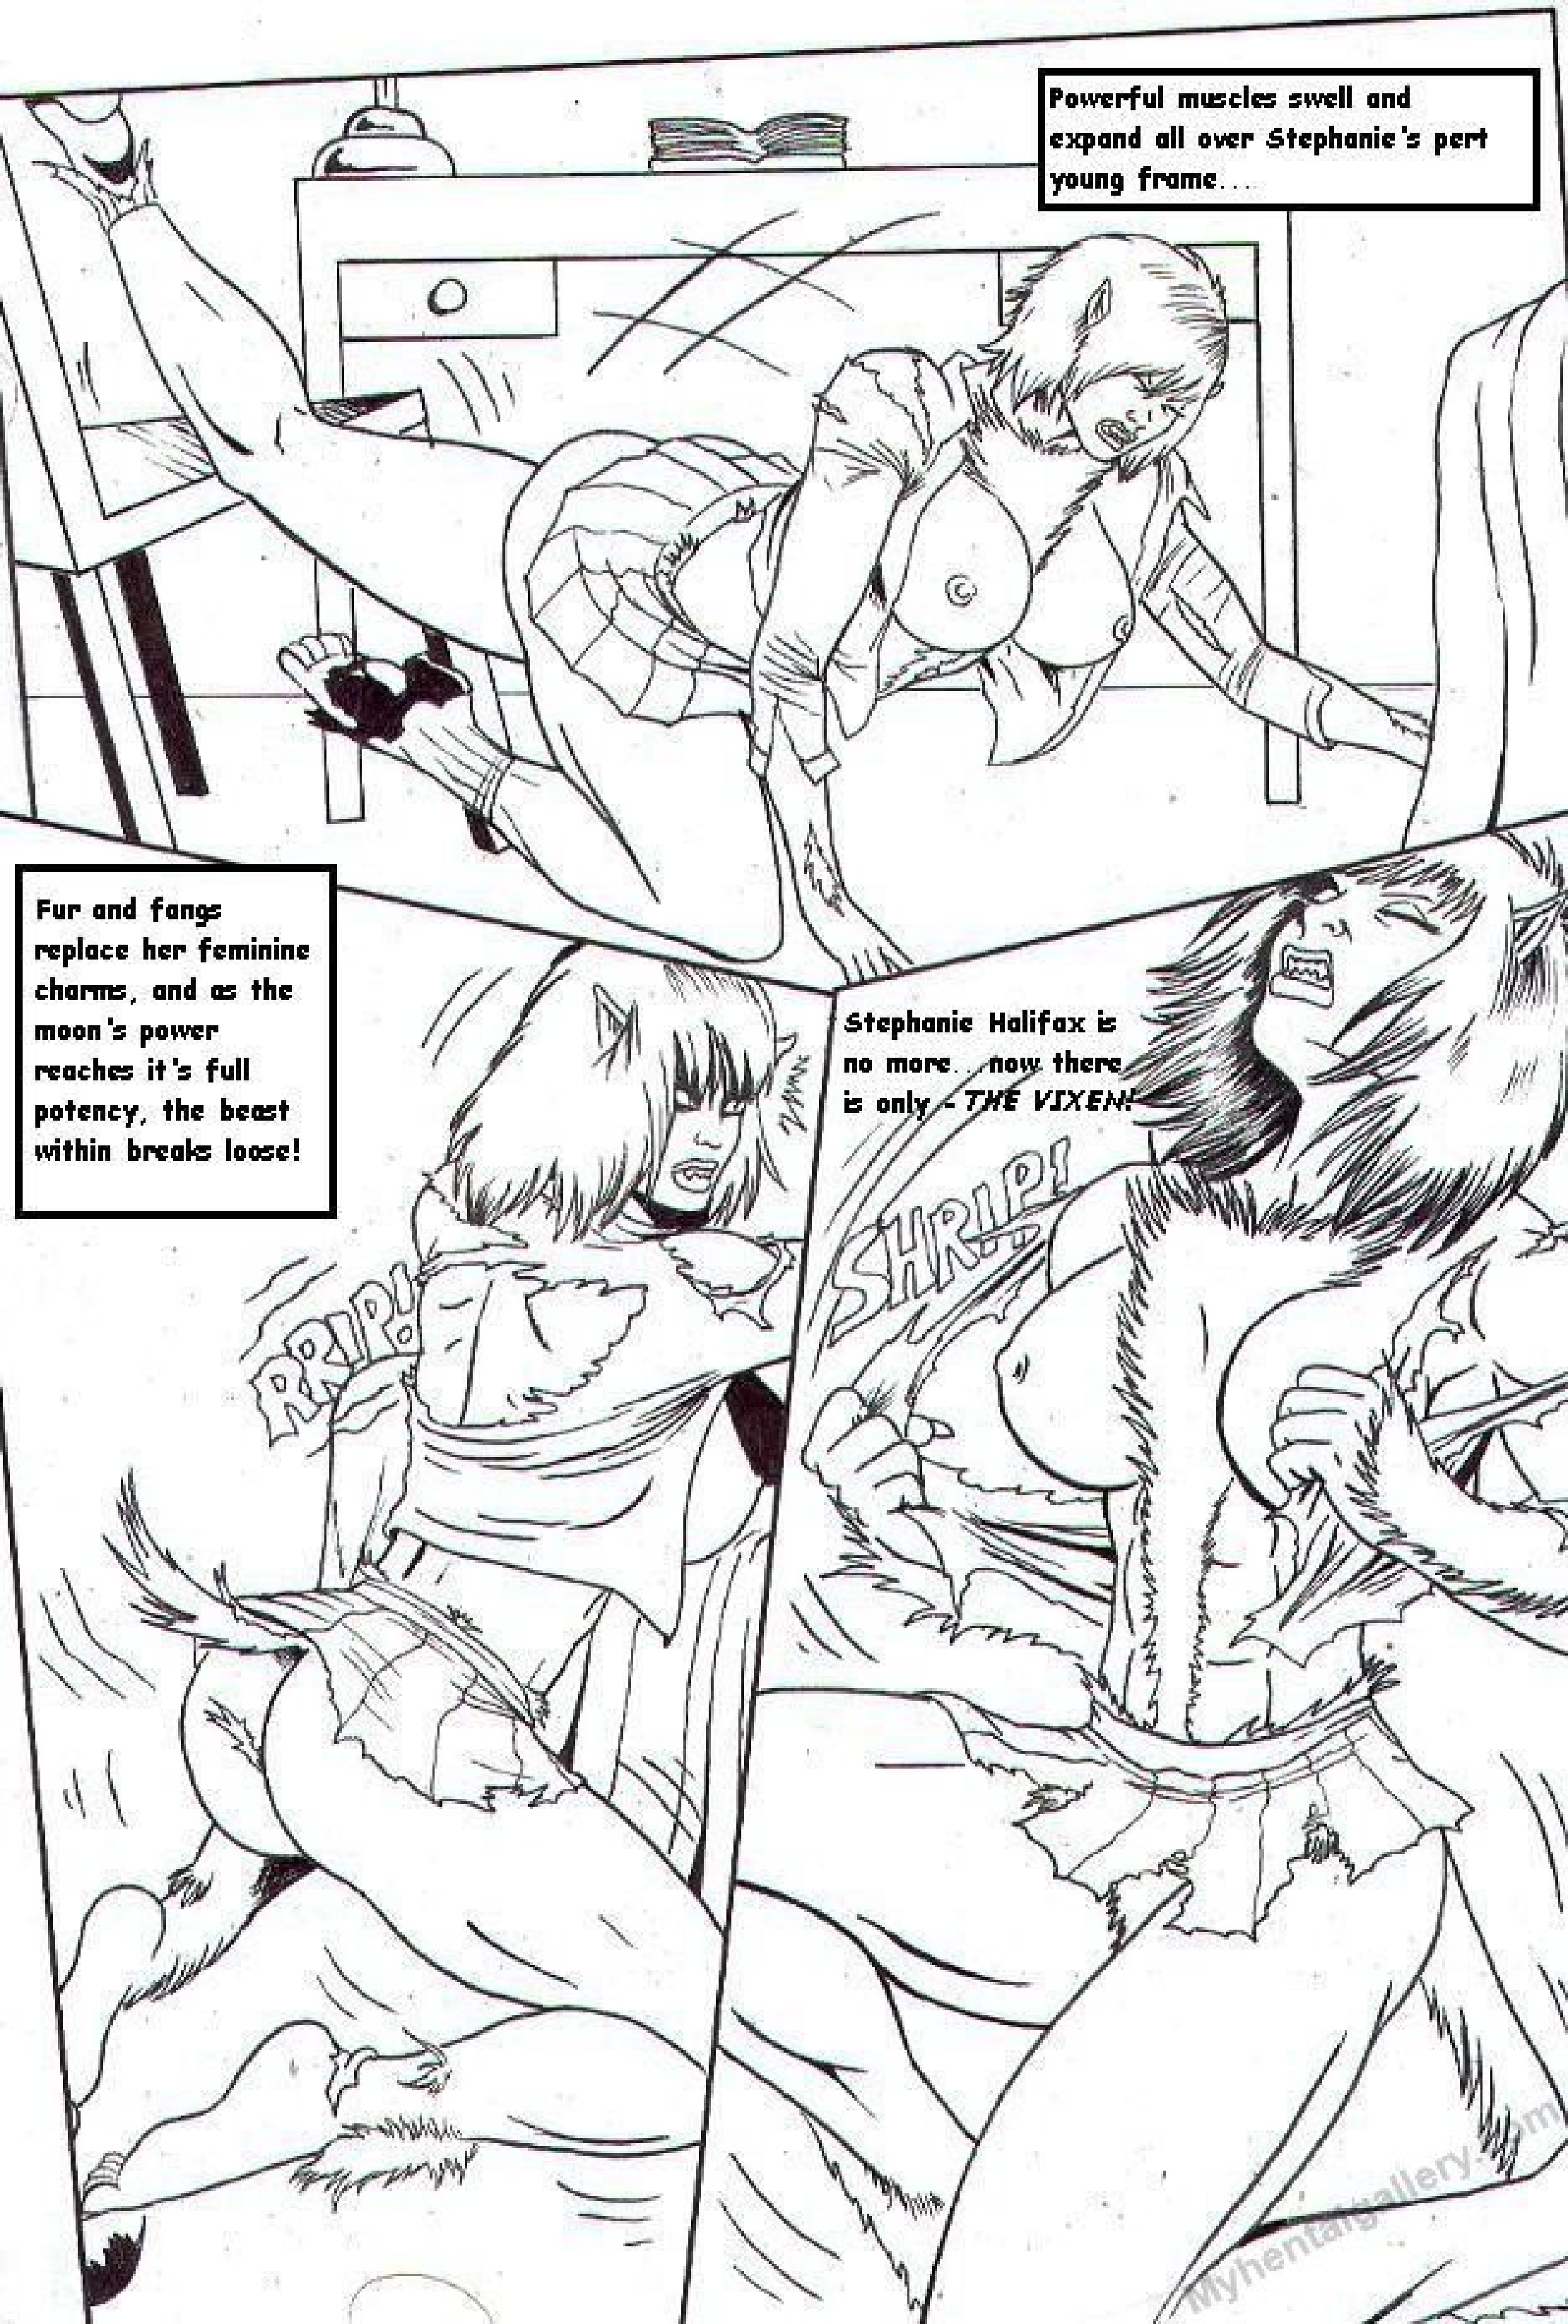

She feels the VIXEN emerging!

Powerful muscles swell and expand all over Stephanie's pert young frame...

Fur and fangs replace her feminine charms, and as the moon's power reaches it's full potency, the beast within breaks loose!

Stephanie Halifax is no more... now there is only - THE VIXEN!

Time to pay STELLAR a little visit!

Bored,
bored,
board!

Hm. That guy last night was a bit of a prick, but he certainly knew what he was doing in bed.

Mmmm his cock was sooo nice and when he started kissing my breasts.

OOHHH...

What the-Oh
NO! How can I be changing?!

Under control again.
It was all so quick so no-one saw, luckily.

Shit, what does this mean?
Am I starting to lose control of my powers? I hate not being able to tell anyone about this.

Ah! At last
I've found you!

www.mentalgallery.com

Hey there Alex!
How's my favourite blah b. Mmmn...

Nurse Wheeler.
My God. LOOK at that body. Are those tits really all hers? And those sexy legs... man,

Oh!
Dr Hendry! I didn't ~~blat~~ blah
bl... Oooh!... Dr Hendry! It's all I can do not to start ripping his clothes off right NOW! Mmm, my panties are soaking wet already!

I'd-
YOU.

YOU will tell me where to find STELLAR!

BUH!-BUH!-BUH!

I WARN you not to lie to me- my superior senses tell me that my ENEMY is very close by. Tell me where she is.

NOW!

The Vixen?!

It's ME She can sense!
I've got to slip away
before she sees me!

She's
here!

SNF
One side,
Peon

Great!
I knew these stupid powers were going to land me in some serious trouble sooner or later! Why does this have to happen to me?

When Vixen comes round the corner in a second she'll put two and two together in no time and then it's sayonara secret identity!

Which won't bother me too much as I'll be dead. Gotta concentrate-trigger the change! But it's so hard to do it when I'm under pressure like this!

Come out and face me, Stellar! you can't hide from the Vixen!

I'm giving you TEN seconds to come out, or I'll start eating people!
10!

SNF,
SNF

Ohh, come ON powers! They were working a few moments ago!

OH! OOH
FUUUUCK!

9!

YES! The change... it's coming on, I...
I can feel it!

Wish I could keep the noise down a bit
though- I can't help moaning like a whore in heat every time
this happens...

4!

3!

"Out the window there. See it?"

"It's the source of all my power, and I haven't even BEGUN to tap it fully."

So now all I have to do is focus- and..

bloik!

Because of the her unique state of lycanthropy, and the fact that she is able to retain her human persona and intellect, the Vixen can influence the effects of the full moon's eldritch power on her body...

This allows her to assume a more bestial, more savagely powerful wolf form than her usual state!

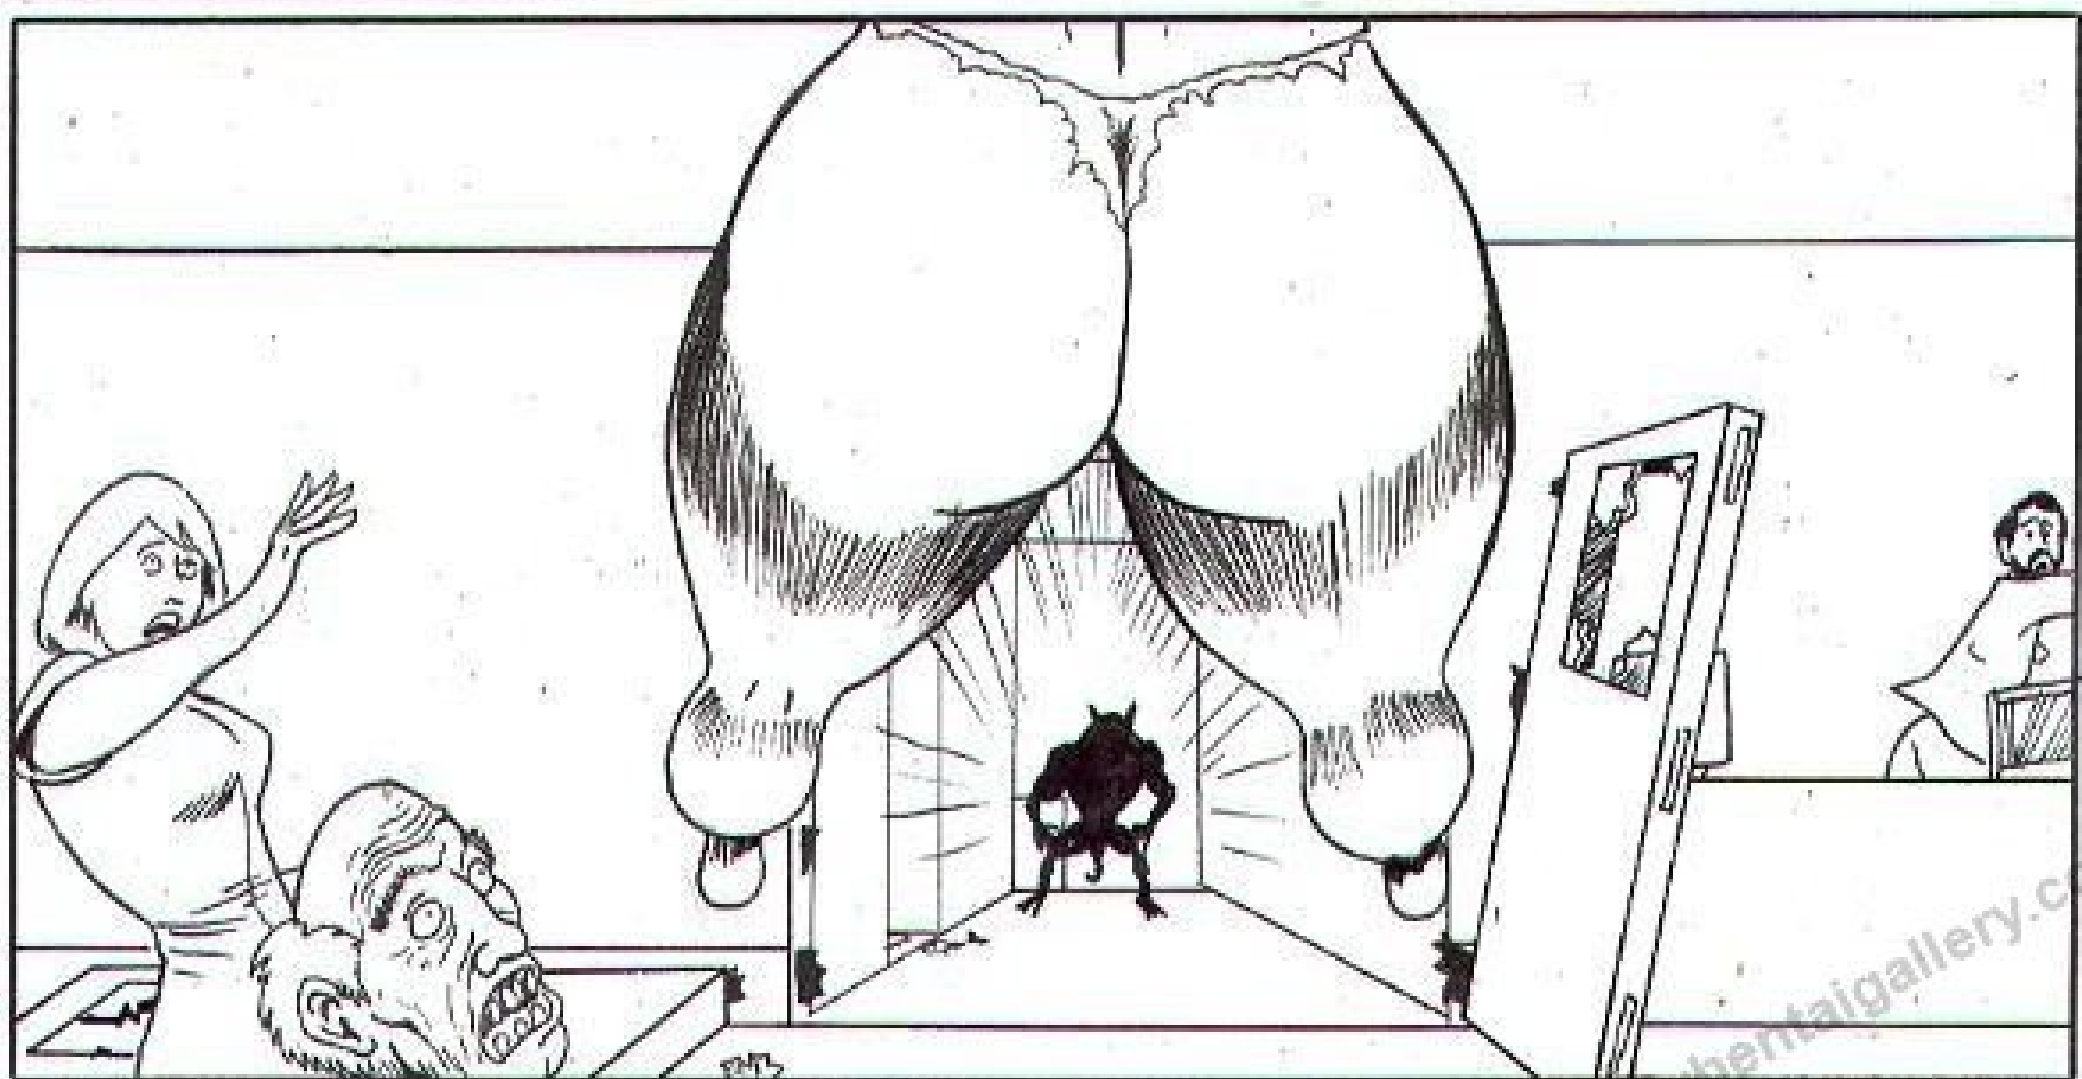

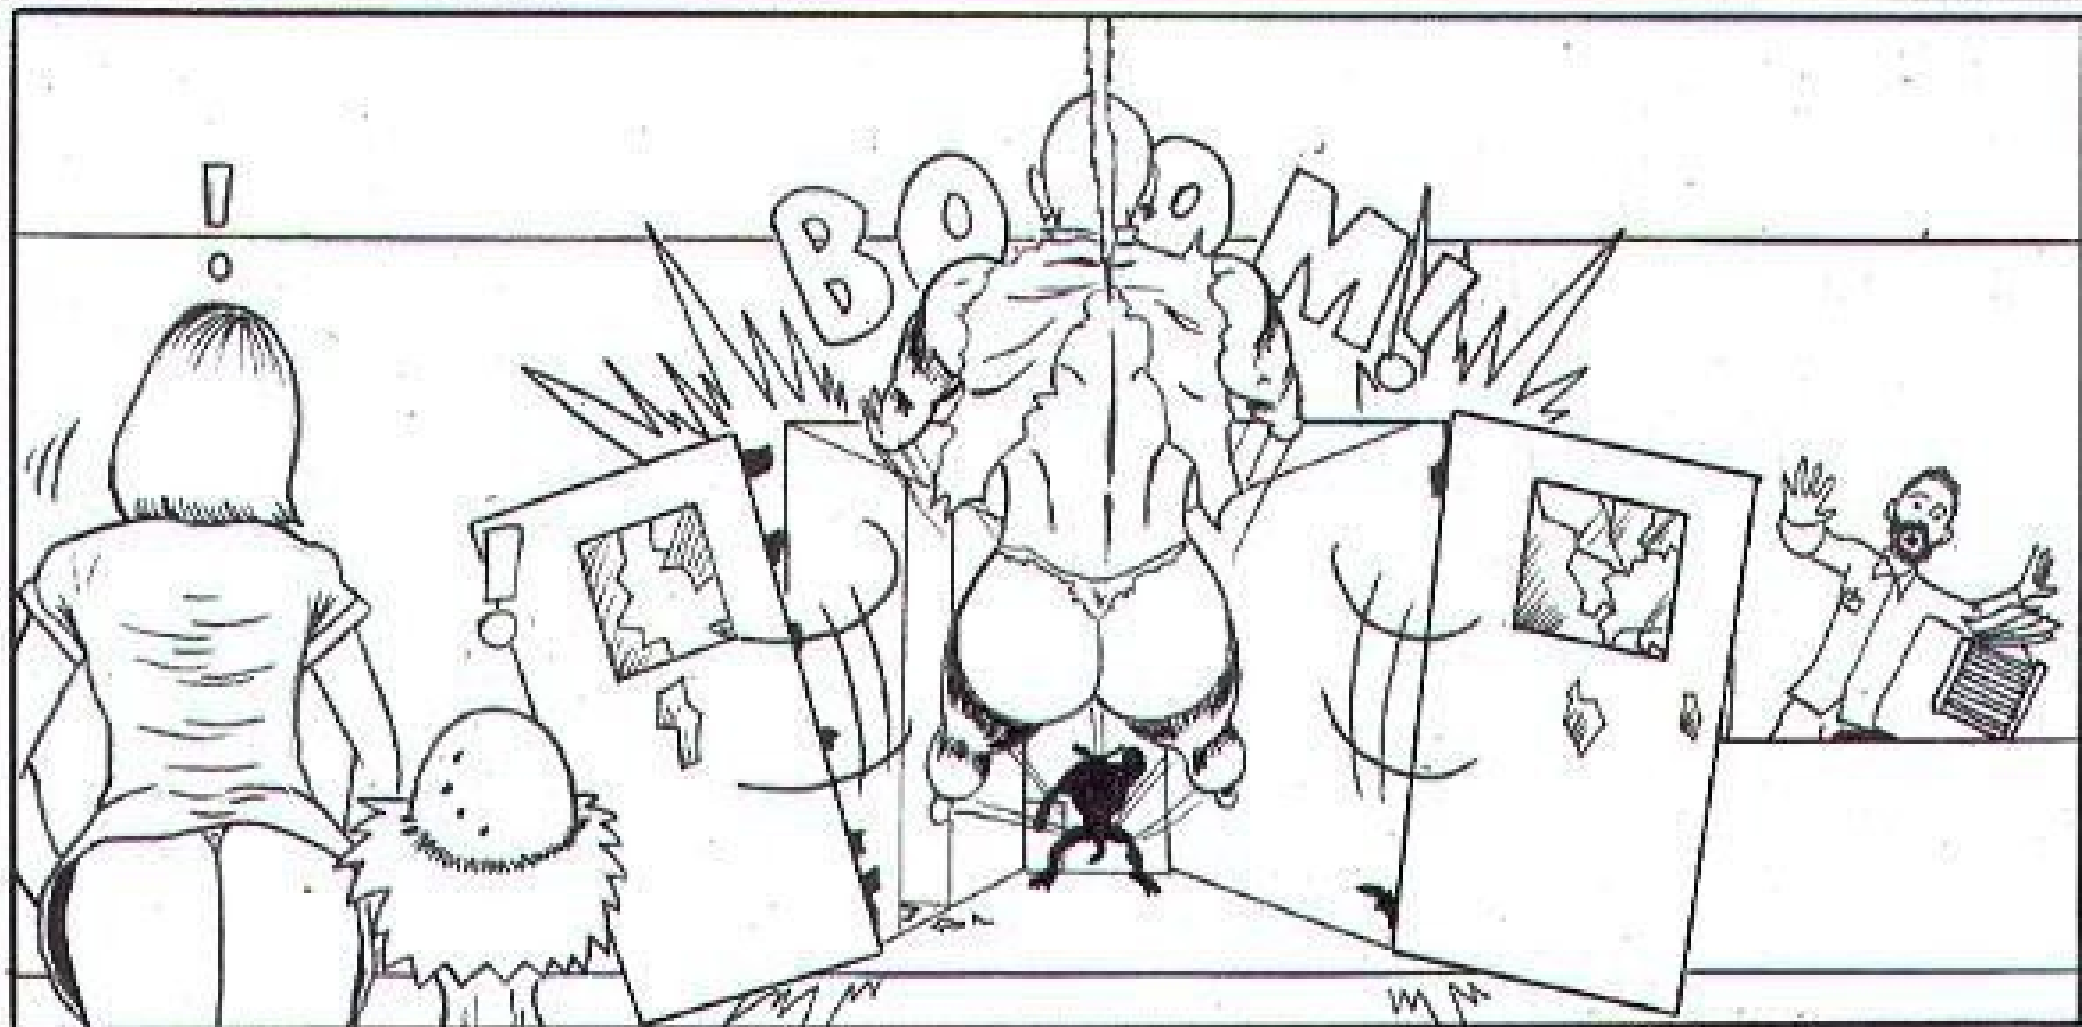

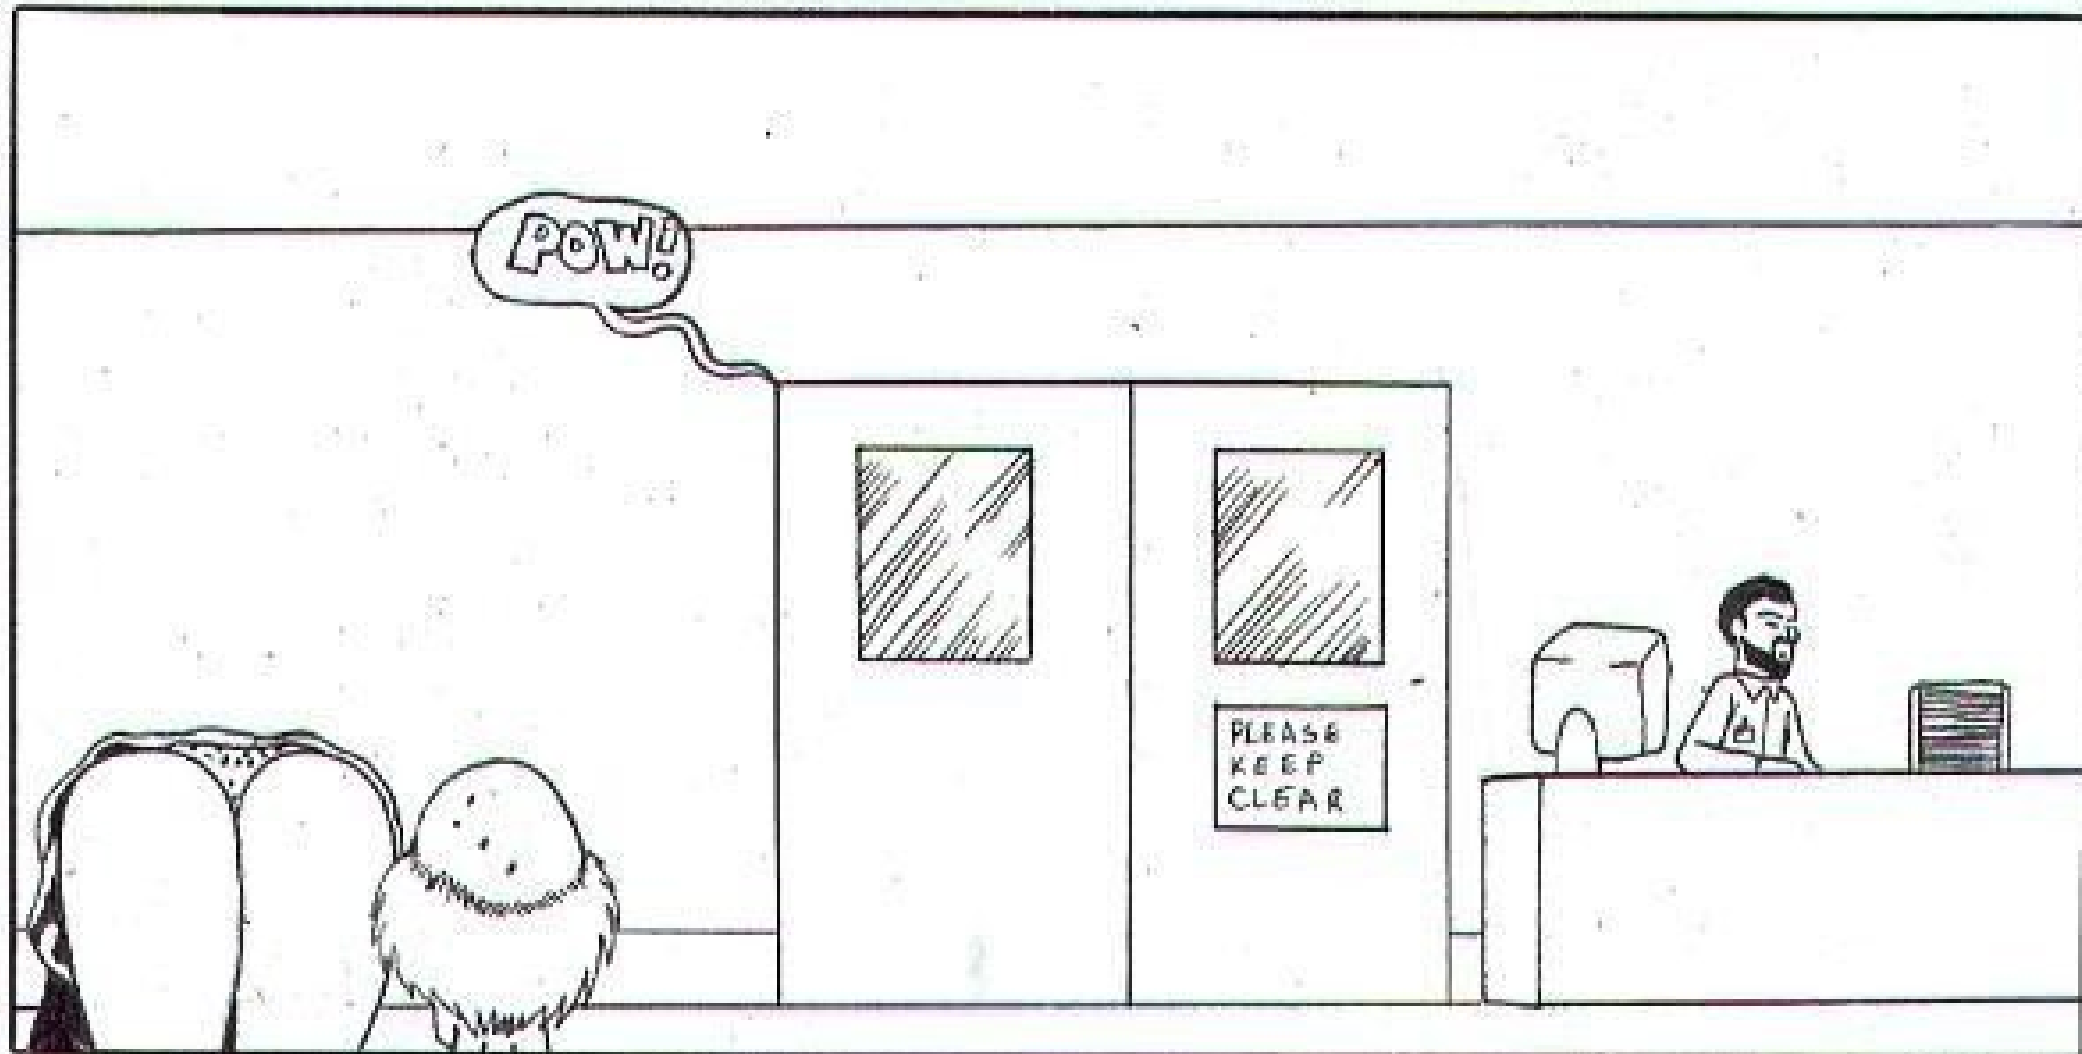

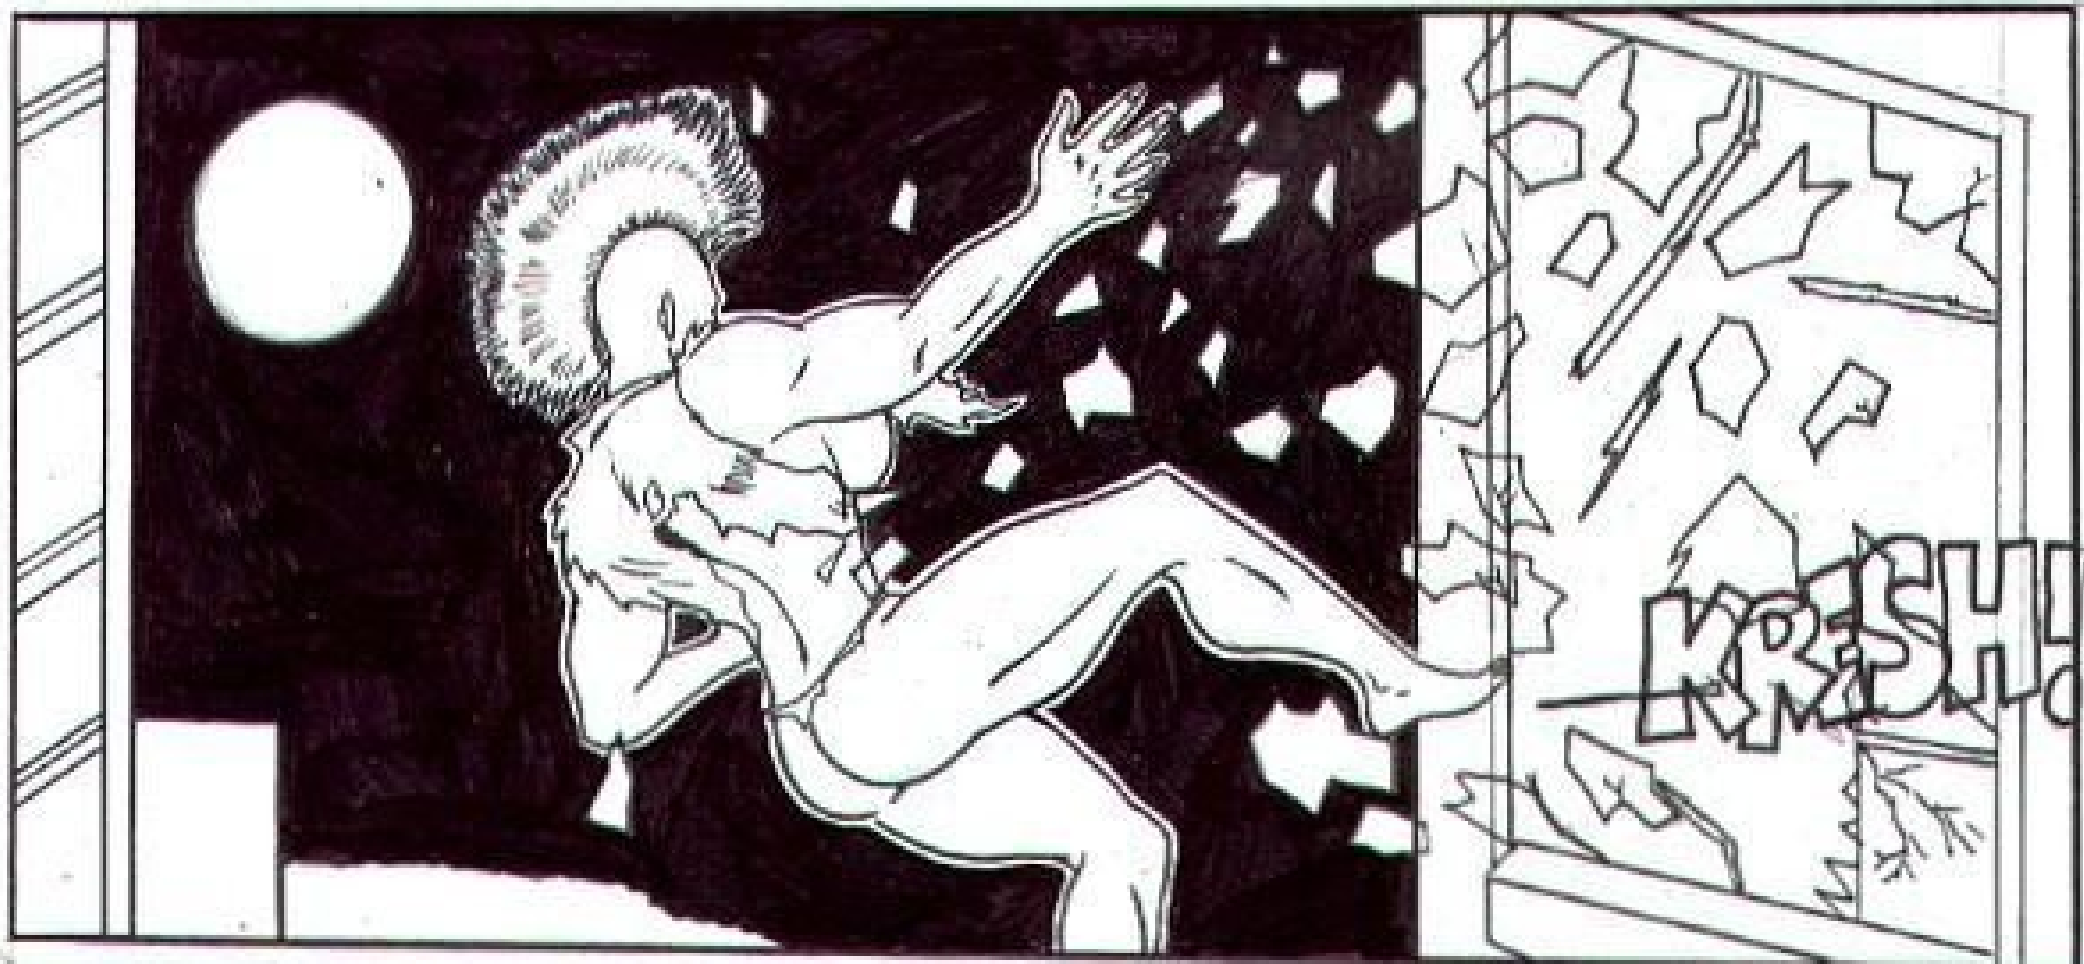

Elsewhere, Nurse Jasmine Vears attends to an elderly patient.

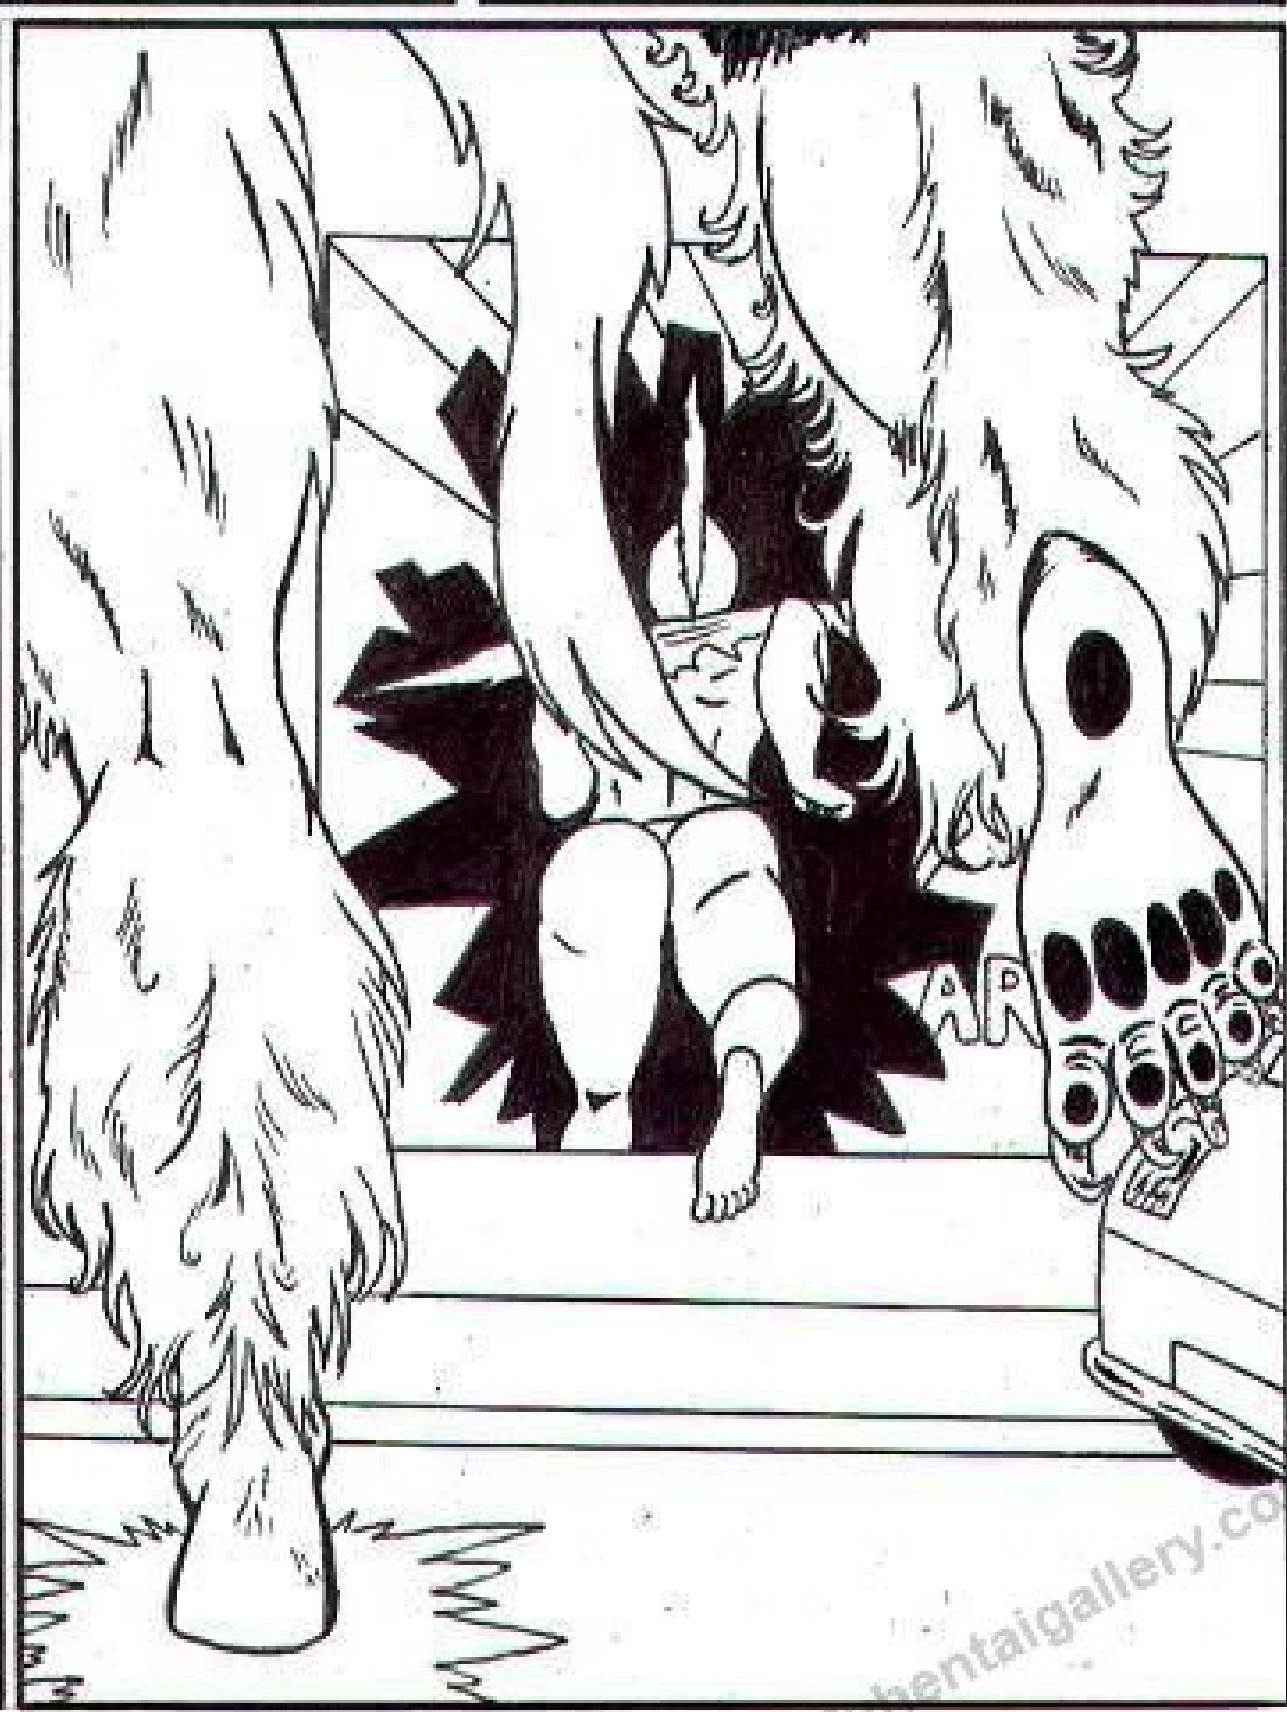

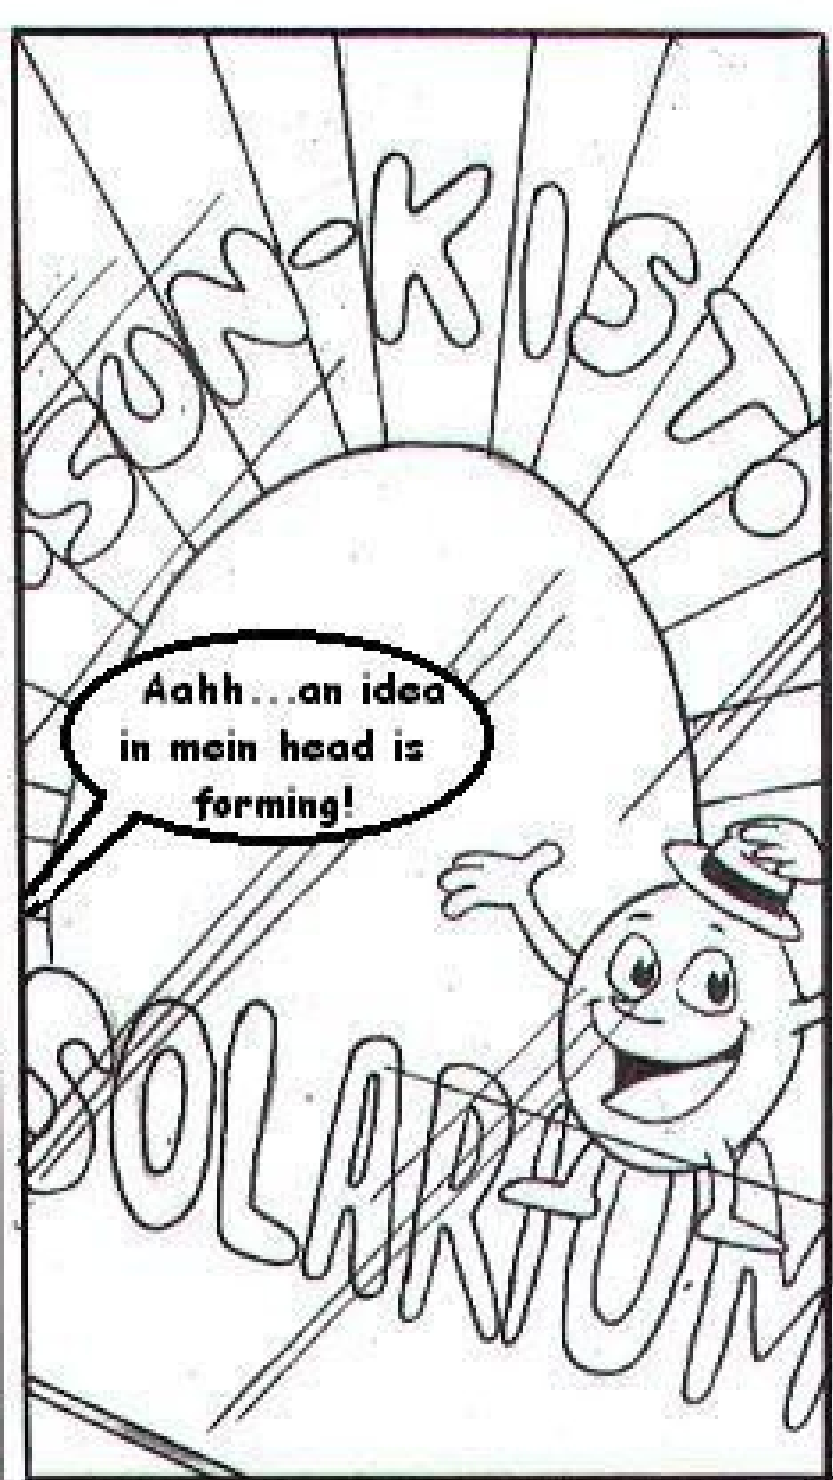

Let's take your blood pressure Mr Simmons

Try to remember not to exert yourself too much or let yourself get over excited by anything Mr Simmons OK?

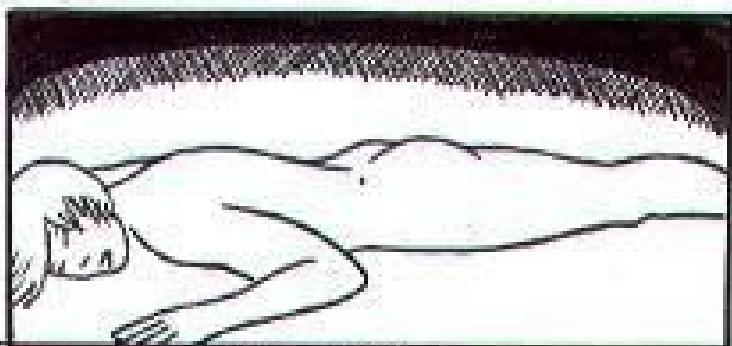

PHEE!

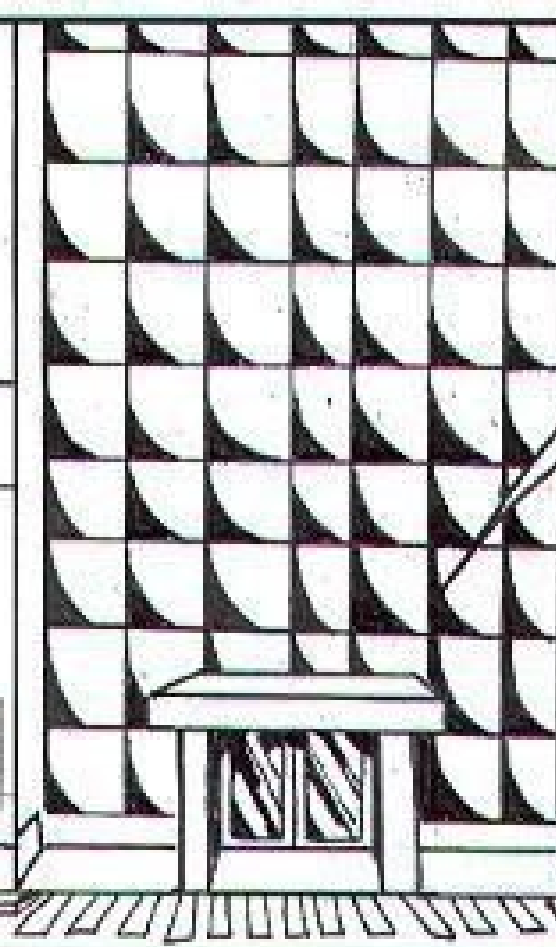

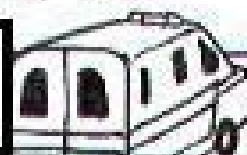

Sun's up sarge. She won't be able to turn back into a werewolf now. Lets nick her and get a fry up eh?

Later, back at Golchester Hospital...

GOLCHES
ROYAL INF

Right you are Haskins my lad. Mind, it'll be Pedigree Chum for breakfast for Ms. Halifax over in supervillain clink. But better that than my arm for brekky, ey?

'Goes without saying miss. Try anything, you're dead.

Well, that's it for the Vixen I guess. Just a bloody lad as well!

Looks like the coast is clear-WOAH! It-it's HER! Stellar! She hasn't noticed me either...

But unknown to Stellar, she is not alone in the unused laundry room she is hiding in...

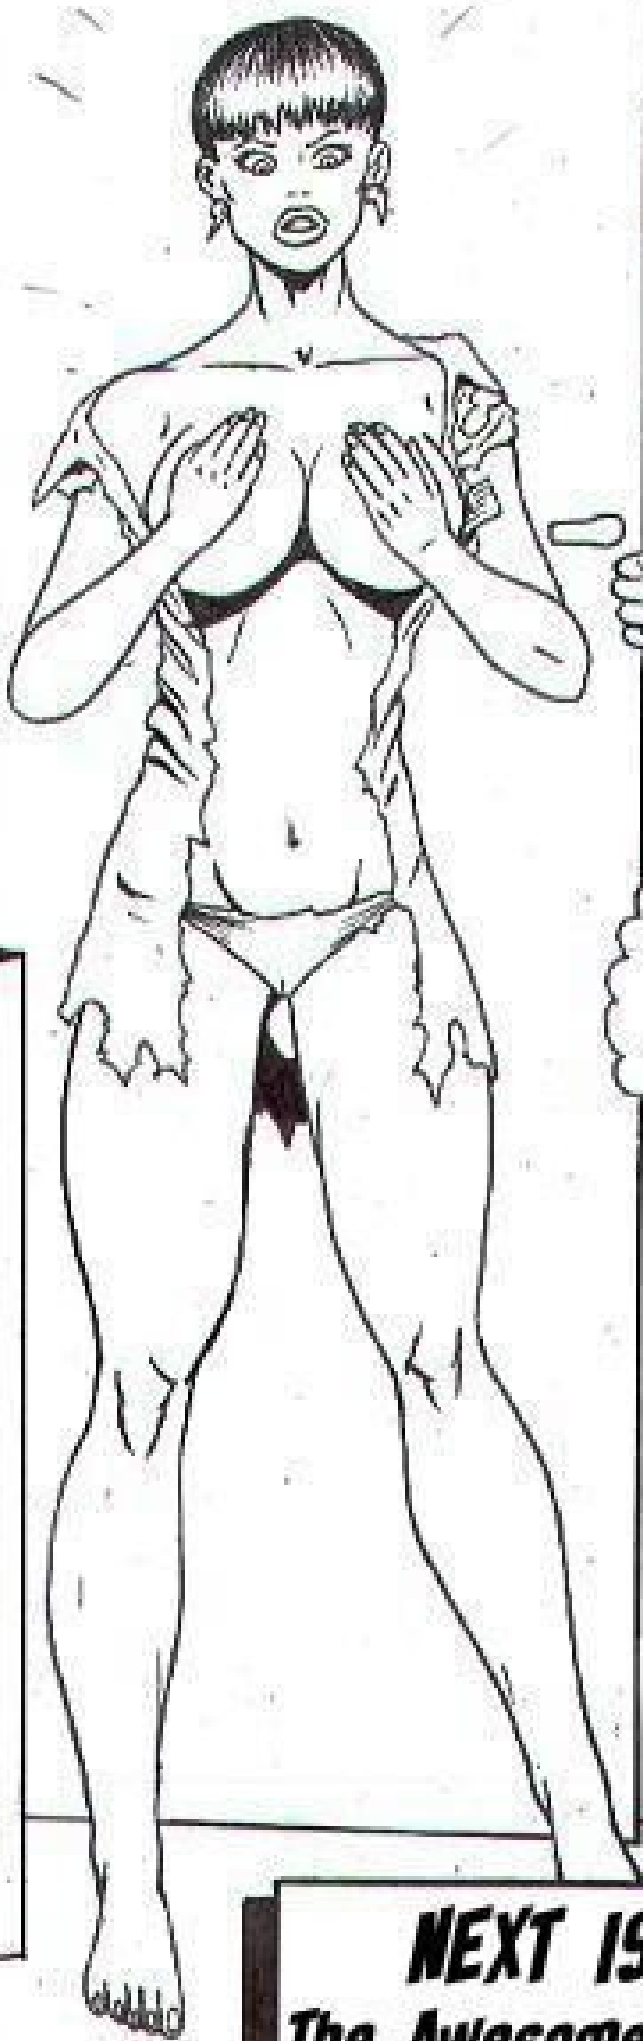

Sighing as a strange tingling sensation spreads across her mighty muscles, Stellar begins to revert to human form, unaware that she is being watched!

Returned to the curvy body of a sexy student nurse, Alex Wheeler cups her bare breasts in irritation. Little knowing that her awesome secret has been discovered!

Oh! I hate being naked when I change back! I need some kind of costume, but the trouble is finding something I can wear that won't get ripped to shreds when I start getting big!

I-
I don't believe it!

Alex Wheeler is STELLAR?!
